OBTAINING MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Pitt home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations and demand. All credential requests should be made online at www.sportssystem.com/pitt.

Media organizations covering Pitt and the visiting school on a regular basis will receive top priority. All other credentials for print media will be issued on the basis of circulation. Only radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show or members of the Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network will be considered for credentials.

GAME DAY MEDIA ENTRANCE

Press members must enter Heinz Field with their credentials through the designated entrance on the west side of the stadium, off Allegheny Avenue. The media entrance is just past Gate A, directly across from the Carnegie Science Center. After checking in with security, take the elevator up to the fourth floor for access to the press box.

GAME DAY MEDIA WILL CALL

Credentials that cannot be mailed may be obtained on game day at media will call, located at the media entrance on the west side of the stadium off Allegheny Avenue. Media will call opens two hours before kickoff. A photo ID must be shown to receive credentials.

GAME DAY TELEPHONES/WIRELESS SERVICE

The media relations office supplies an adequate number of telephones in the press box for general use by visiting writers. Personal phone lines at assigned seats can be ordered by contacting the media relations office and obtaining a phone line request form. Orders must be placed at least four days prior to game day. Wireless Internet service is available to media members in the Heinz Field press box.

PHOTOGRAPHY ROOM

There is a photo room easily accessible from the field for covering photographers. Enter the tunnel located closest to the Pitt sideline in the closed (north) end of the stadium.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The postgame press conference for Pitt home games will be held in the media compound, located conveniently off the administrative offices lobby by the press box elevator. Coach Dave Wannstedt and select Pitt players will attend the press conference. Pitt's locker room is closed to the media and the public. Opponent interviews will be held in a room connected to the visitor's locker room.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Wannstedt will conduct his weekly press conferences Mondays, beginning at noon. The conferences will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. Transcripts as well as audio/video archives of Coach Wannstedt's press conferences are available on www.PittsburghPanthers.com.

BIG EAST FOOTBALL TELECONFERENCE

Coach Wannstedt will be available for interviews via a Big East Football Teleconference every Monday from 11:20 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Contact the conference media relations office at (401) 453-0660 for the dial-in number.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The initial 30 minutes of Pitt football practice, Tuesday through Thursday, are open to the media for observation. Photographers are also free to shoot practice during this time. The duration of the workout is closed. Media members should contact E.J. Borghetti or Mendy Nestor in advance for practice times and proper clearance. All practices will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

All interviews must be arranged through the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance. Please note the following interview opportunities:

COACH WANNSTEDT PRACTICE PRESS BRIEFINGS

Coach Wannstedt will hold a press briefing on the field before each practice on weekdays. Consult the media relations office for exact times.

PLAYER AND ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Player and assistant coach interviews will be held before practice at a designated time. Consult the media relations office for a weekly schedule. The deadline for player interviews during game weeks is Thursday at noon. The media relations office will not release player telephone numbers.

PITT

Calling all the Pitt football action this year will be Bill Fralic (left) and Bill Hillgrove.

PITTSBURGH ISP SPORTS NETWORK

This past July, the University of Pittsburgh and its multi-media rights holder ISP Sports announced a new radio partnership with CBS RADIO Pittsburgh to broadcast coverage of Pitt football and men's basketball beginning in 2010-11.

The 50,000-watt KDKA-FM Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan, the only station in Pittsburgh to feature 24/7 local sports programming, will serve as the flagship for the Panthers.

In addition to game broadcasts, Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan will air a wide array of ancillary programming focusing on the Panthers, including weekly shows featuring football coach Dave Wannstedt and basketball coach Jamie Dixon.

"The University of Pittsburgh is incredibly proud to partner with KDKA, truly one of the legendary names in radio broadcasting," Athletic Director Steve Pederson said. "The launch of Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan has been a feast for sports fans throughout Western Pennsylvania and beyond. With 24-hour local programming, the Panther Nation will enjoy plenty of Pitt sports news and talk throughout the year.

"Whether it's a Pitt football Saturday or the excitement of March Madness, the Panthers are going to enjoy comprehensive and unprecedented radio coverage thanks to this new partnership."

"We are extremely excited about our new partnership with the University of Pittsburgh," said Michael Young, Senior Vice President and Market Manager of CBS RADIO Pittsburgh. "The university and its athletic programs are a vitally important part of this region, and we look forward to proudly promoting Pitt sports and the many wonderful aspects related to the overall university."

The Pitt-CBS RADIO Pittsburgh partnership will feature a promotional platform that will create awareness for the various assets of the University of Pittsburgh, which will be heard on-air, viewed online and experienced on-site at events. CBS RADIO's Pittsburgh stations include KDKA-FM Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan, NEWSRADIO 1020 KDKA, WZPT-FM STAR 100.7 and WDSY-FM Y-108.

CBS RADIO, one of the largest major-market radio operators in the United States, is a division of CBS Corporation. CBS RADIO operates 130 radio stations, the majority of which are in the nation's top 50 markets, including Pittsburgh, which is a top 25 market.

In addition to the flagship station, Pitt games will be broadcast on the Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network, which includes a loyal lineup of affiliates that provide blanket radio coverage of Pennsylvania and beyond.

Beginning this fall, Pitt football broadcasts will include:

- A three-hour football pregame show.
- "Panther Hotline," a call-in show following postgame coverage.
- A weekly Dave Wannstedt Show, airing live from the Pittsburgh Steak Company (1924 East Carson Street), on Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m. Coach Wannstedt previews the upcoming game and takes questions from callers listening on many of the same Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network affiliates that carry Pitt game broadcasts.

For the 37th consecutive year, Bill Hillgrove will be the "Voice of the Panthers." Hillgrove's accurate and descriptive style paints the picture for Pitt fans listening to the network. Hillgrove has a long association with the Panthers and Pittsburgh sports scene. Prior to taking over the play-by-play duties for Pitt football, Hillgrove served as the Panthers' color analyst from 1970-73. He has also served as the play-by-play man for Pitt basketball broadcasts since 1969.

A popular and well-known Pittsburgh sports personality, Hillgrove has long been a Panther ambassador of good will.

He is a 1962 graduate of Duquesne and has also been the Pittsburgh Steelers' play-by-play announcer since 1995.

Hillgrove was named the 2007 recipient of the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award for excellence in college football broadcasting.

Bill Fralic, one of college football's greatest offensive linemen during his Pitt playing career from 1981-84, enters his seventh year as color analyst. Fralic was a three-time first team All-American, earning unanimous status his final two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman to twice finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting, placing sixth in 1984 and eighth in 1983. Fralic's No. 79 jersey was retired following his senior season at Pitt.

The second player taken overall in the 1985 NFL Draft, Fralic went on to an exceptional pro career from 1985-93, playing eight years with the Atlanta Falcons and his final season with the Detroit Lions. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times.

As of July 2010, the Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network lineup of football stations included:

GAME DAY PARKING GUIDE

PITT

THE OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt's quarterback competition will revolve around two primary candidates, sophomore Tino Sunseri and junior Pat Bostick.

Sunseri, who enters August training camp as the frontrunner following an impressive spring, was the top reserve in 2009 behind senior starter Bill Stull. In five relief appearances, he completed 10-of-17 passes (58.8%) for 114 yards and two touchdowns.

Bostick, who redshirted last season, has played in 16 career games, including nine starting assignments. Over the 2007 and '08 seasons he completed 60.4% of his passes (177 of 293) for 1,770 yards and nine touchdowns.

Also returning is junior Andrew Janocko, a former walk-on who earned a scholarship last year and has lettered twice as the team's holder.

WHO'S GONE: Bill Stull was a first-team All-Big East selection last year after throwing for a league-high 2,633 yards. Stull threw 21 touchdowns against just eight interceptions to rank 10th nationally, and first in the Big East, in pass efficiency (150.61 rating).

WHO'S NEW: Pitt signed two highly regarded quarterbacks in Anthony Gonzalez and Mark Myers. Gonzalez compiled 5,311 yards in total offense and 61 touchdowns over his final two years at Liberty High in Pennsylvania. Myers was lauded by Rivals as the top QB prospect in Ohio after he threw for 2,127 yards and 20 TDs as a senior at perennial power St. Ignatius.

NOTABLE: Bill Stull was 19-7 as Pitt's starting quarterback and finished sixth in school history with 5,252 career passing yards.

RUNNING BACKS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt returns one of college football's most exciting runners in sophomore Dion Lewis, a 5-foot-8, 195-pound sparkplug who ranked third nationally in rushing last year (138.38 yards/game). Lewis finished 2009 as the most decorated freshman in the country. He was named to no fewer than eight All-America teams and also earned Big East Offensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year honors.

His running style and high production sparked comparisons to some of the top backs in school history. Lewis finished with 1,799 yards and 17 touchdowns on 325 carries (5.5 avg.), the second highest yardage in Pitt annals. Only the legendary Tony Dorsett, who eclipsed 2,000 yards during his 1976 Heisman Trophy campaign, rushed for more yards in a single season at Pitt.

No longer a secret on the national scene, Lewis should earn consideration for college football's top honors in 2010.

Sophomore Ray Graham was a productive complement to Lewis last year, averaging 5.7 yards per carry (349 yards on 61 carries) and scoring four touchdowns. Additionally, sophomore letterman Chris Burns and redshirt freshman Jason Douglas provide competitive depth at tailback.

Junior Henry Hynoski returns as Pitt's starting fullback and is invaluable to the offense with or without the ball in his hands. A prototypical bruising blocker, Hynoski has proven adept as a runner (4.5 yards per carry) and receiver (15 catches for 109 yards).

Redshirt freshman Kevin Adams enters his first active season and will compete for the top backup spot. Also in the mix at fullback will be a pair of walk-ons, senior letterman Joe Capp and sophomore Chris Mike.

WHO'S GONE: Every major contributor from last year's stable of backs returns for 2010.

WHO'S NEW: The Panthers welcome two freshman tailbacks in T.J. Peeler and Andre Givens. Peeler, the top back in Virginia according to Scout, rushed for 3,376 yards his final two seasons while leading Broad Run to a 28-0 mark and consecutive state championships. Givens, despite an injury-hindered senior year, earned similar acclaim for Ohio's Hubbard High and compiled 2,358 rushing yards as a junior and senior.

NOTABLE: Dion Lewis established himself as the most productive freshman rusher in Pitt history, breaking the 36-year-old frosh mark of 1,686 yards set by Tony Dorsett in 1973. Lewis' 1,799 yards are also the most by a freshman in Big East history, eclipsing another former Panther, LeSean McCoy, who had 1,328 yards in 2007.

WIDE RECEIVERS

WHO'S BACK: Junior Jon Baldwin was a first-team All-Big East performer after compiling 57 catches for 1,111 yards (19.5 avg.) with eight touchdowns. At 6-foot-5, Baldwin is a big target with outstanding leaping ability. He also is a dangerous vertical threat, evidenced by his TD catches of 79 and 71 yards.

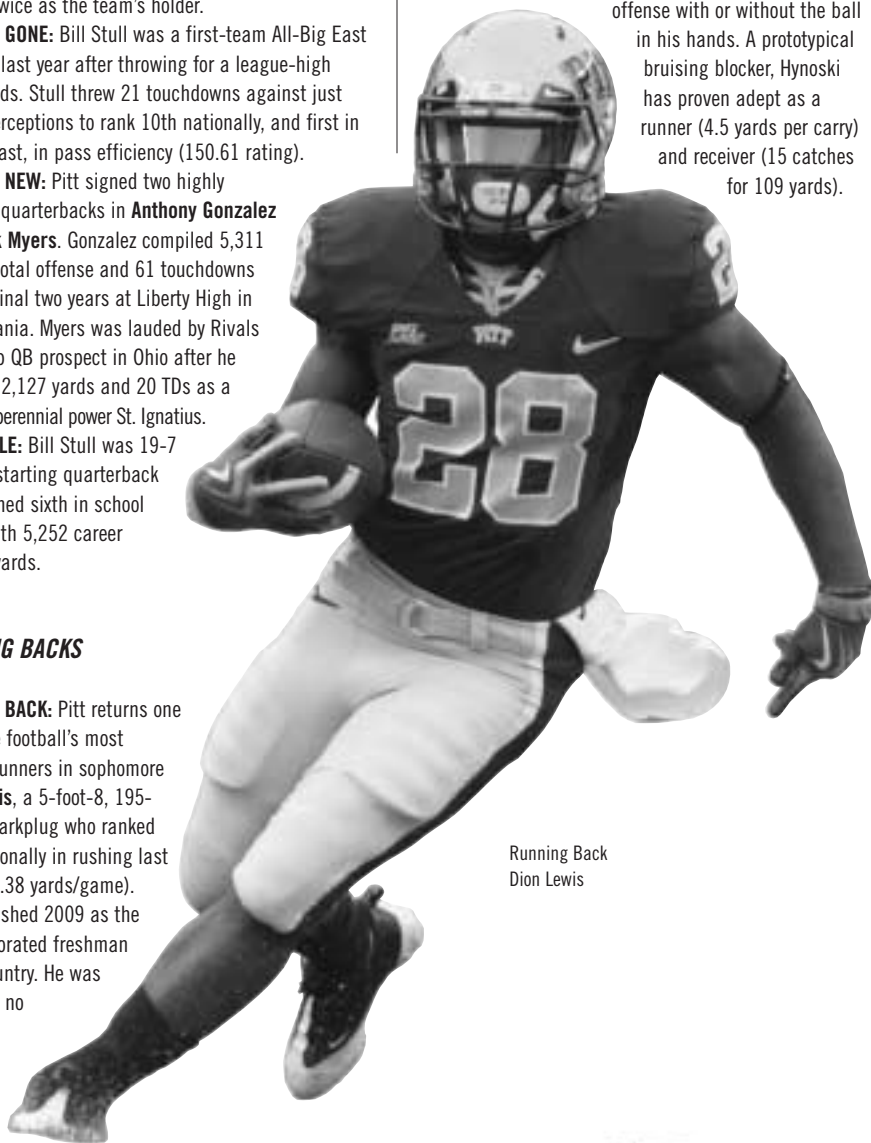

A top candidate to start opposite Baldwin is sophomore Mike Shanahan. Also standing 6-5, Shanahan played a major role in Pitt's bowl victory over North Carolina with five catches for 83 yards, including a key third-down catch on the Panthers' winning field goal drive. On the year he had 15 catches for 211 yards (14.1 avg.).

Other returning lettermen include junior Aaron Smith and sophomore Cameron Saddler. Both players boast excellent hands and have been utilized in Pitt's return game. Senior Greg Cross, a former quarterback, is one of the unit's best athletes and is ready to vie for time following a 2009 redshirt.

Promising redshirt freshmen Devin Street and Ed Tinker enter their first active seasons. Also back is sophomore walk-on Caleb Wilson.

WHO'S GONE: Pitt lost a pair of four-year contributors at receiver in Oderick Turner and Cedric McGee. Turner finished among the top 10 in career receptions and receiving yards at Pitt.

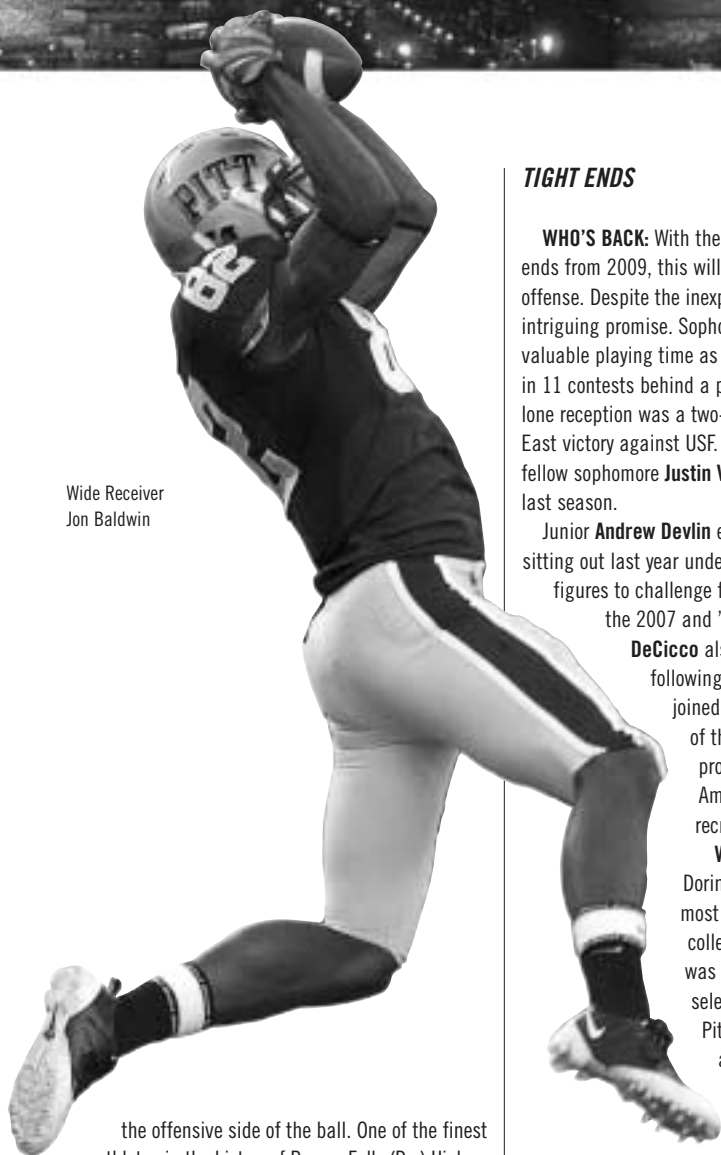

WHO'S NEW: Pitt signed three first-team all-state wide receivers from Pennsylvania in 2010, including Drew Carswell (Sto-Rox), Kevin Weatherspoon (Clairton) and Salath Williams (Bishop McDevitt). Additionally, highly regarded prep school prospect Todd Thomas signed with the Panthers and will begin his collegiate career on

Running Back

PITT

Wide Receiver
Jon Baldwin

the offensive side of the ball. One of the finest athletes in the history of Beaver Falls (Pa.) High, Thomas was a three-time all-state selection at three different positions before attending Milford Academy in New York this past year.

NOTABLE: Jon Baldwin enters 2010 as a viable candidate for the Biletnikoff Award, annually presented to the country's top wide receiver. Pitt receivers have won the prestigious honor twice before, including Larry Fitzgerald (now of the Arizona Cardinals) in 2003 and Antonio Bryant (Cincinnati Bengals) in 2000.

TIGHT ENDS

WHO'S BACK: With the departure of its top two tight ends from 2009, this will be Pitt's youngest position on offense. Despite the inexperience, it remains an area of intriguing promise. Sophomore Mike Cruz gained valuable playing time as a reserve last year, appearing in 11 contests behind a pair of senior starters. Cruz's lone reception was a two-yard touchdown in a key Big East victory against USF. His competition will include fellow sophomore Justin Virbitsky, who also lettered last season.

Junior Andrew Devlin enters active duty for Pitt after sitting out last year under NCAA transfer rules and figures to challenge for playing time. Devlin spent the 2007 and '08 seasons at Virginia. Brock DeCicco also enters his first active season following a freshman redshirt. DeCicco joined the Panthers last year as one of the country's top tight end prospects, earning prep All-America honors from several recruiting services.

WHO'S GONE: Nate Byham and Dorin Dickerson formed perhaps the most talented tight end tandem in college football last year. Byham was a two-time All-Big East selection, while Dickerson departed Pitt as a first-team All-American and Mackey Award finalist after catching 10 touchdowns.

Both were selected in April's NFL Draft with Byham going to the San Francisco 49ers and Dickerson getting picked by the Houston Texans.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt adds two freshmen plus a highly regarded transfer at tight end. The Panthers signed two prospects from the state of Ohio in Brendan Carozzoni (St. Ignatius) and first-team all-state performer Dan Schneider (Avon Lake). Additionally, Hubie Graham joined Pitt this past offseason after transferring from Illinois. Graham will be inactive for games during the 2010 season due to NCAA transfer guidelines but will still practice.

NOTABLE: Dorin Dickerson became the first Pitt tight end to earn first-team All-America status since the legendary Mike Ditka was honored in 1960.

OFFENSIVE LINE

WHO'S BACK: Pitt will need to retool the interior of its offensive line, but welcomes back perhaps the Big East's best tackle tandem in senior Jason Pinkston and junior Lucas Nix. Pinkston earned first team All-Big East and garnered second-team All-America accolades following a strong 2009 season. He enters his third year as the starter at left tackle. Nix, a former high school All-American, started all 13 games on the right side and could be poised for an all-star year as well.

Providing competition at the tackle spots will be junior letterman Jordan Gibbs and redshirt freshmen Juantez Hollins and Cory King. Additionally, sophomore walk-on Keith Coleman will provide depth.

The Panthers will feature new starters at center and both guard spots. Senior walk-on Alex Karabin will look to seize the center position after lettering the last two years on special teams. He will be pushed by redshirt freshman Jack Lippert.

Junior Chris Jacobson appears ready for the starting role at left guard. He made a surprise start in last year's Meineke Car Care Bowl against North Carolina and performed well in the victory. Also competing at this spot will be junior John Fieger and redshirt freshman Fernando Diaz.

The competition at right guard will include a pair of lettermen in junior Greg Gaskins and sophomore Ryan Turnley, as well as redshirt frosh Ryan Schlieper.

WHO'S GONE: Three starters are gone due to graduation, including first-team All-Big East performer John Malecki at right guard, four-year starter Joe Thomas at left guard and center Robb Houser.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt's incoming freshman class includes four offensive linemen, including Don Bosco Prep's Brandon Sacco, the top-rated offensive line prospect in New Jersey according to Scout; Shane Johnson, a consensus All-Maryland pick at DeMatha Catholic; All-Ohio performer Matt Rotheram of North Olmsted; and Arthur Doakes, an All-Pennsylvania lineman out of Lebanon.

NOTABLE: Pitt's offensive line has paved the way for three consecutive 1,000-yard rushers. In addition to Dion Lewis' 1,799-yard performance last year, former Panther LeSean McCoy (now of the Philadelphia Eagles) rushed for 1,488 yards in 2008 and 1,328 in 2007.

Pitt last produced a 1,000-yard rusher in four consecutive seasons during the Tony Dorsett era. The Panthers had a school-record five consecutive 1,000-yard rushers from 1973-77 (including four by Dorsett).

THE DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

WHO'S BACK: Pitt might boast the best pair of defensive ends in the country in seniors Greg Romeus and Jabaal Sheard. The duo combined for 13 sacks, 22 TFLs and 23 quarterback hurries last year.

Romeus compiled a team-high eight sacks and also had 11.5 TFLs and 11 hurries. He was a unanimous first-team All-Big East performer and shared the league's Defensive Player of the Year honor (with graduated teammate Mick Williams) in 2009. Romeus additionally was a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year award and should be among the favorites for this year's honor.

Sheard's production was strikingly similar as he accounted for 10.5 TFLs, five sacks and a team-best 12 hurries. He also should garner significant attention for the country's top defensive honors.

The Panthers return experienced backups at end in junior Brandon Lindsey, sophomore Shayne Hale and senior Nate Nix. Redshirt freshman Bernardo Nunez is new to active duty this year.

The Panthers will need to replace starters at both tackle spots. At nose tackle, junior Myles Caragein was very productive as a top backup last year, collecting 7.5 TFLs and five sacks, and should be ready for a starting role. He will be pushed by senior letterman Tyler Tkach and highly regarded redshirt frosh Tyrone Ezell.

At the other tackle spot, junior Chas Alecxih will be a frontrunner after collecting four sacks and five total TFLs as a backup last season. Junior letterman Justin Hargrove will also push for time at this position.

WHO'S GONE: Tackle Mick Williams shared the Big East Defensive Player of the Year honor with Greg Romeus after collecting a league-best 17 TFLs. Nose tackle Gus Mustakas was also an All-Big East performer and four-year contributor to Pitt's defensive front.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt mined the talent-rich states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey to sign four well-regarded defensive linemen. Some scouting services rated T.J. Clemmings (Paterson Catholic) and Bryan Murphy (Don Bosco Prep) the top two overall prospects in the Garden State. Closer to home, Western Pennsylvania products Aaron Donald (Penn Hills) and Khaynin Mosley-Smith (Woodland Hills) both earned first team all-state on the Class AAAA level (largest classification).

NOTABLE: Pitt led the entire country in quarterback sacks last year with 47. The Panthers' defensive line was responsible for 37 of those sacks (79%).

LINEBACKERS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt returns two starters and six total lettermen in its linebacker corps.

Junior Greg Williams enters his third season as a starter. He moved to Will linebacker in the spring after playing the Sam position the previous two years. Williams has displayed a knack for making big plays and has three career returns for touchdowns, including two interceptions (51 and 20 yards) and a fumble return (50 yards).

After an injury-hindered 2009 season, junior letterman Tristan Roberts has returned to healthy form and figures to be a factor at the Will. Additional competition will come from redshirt freshman Carl Fleming.

Junior Max Gruder started all 13 games last year and led the Panthers in tackles with 91. After primarily playing the weakside in 2009, Gruder will move to the Sam position this season. He will be pushed by athletic sophomore letterman Manny Williams. Providing additional strongside depth will be a pair of walk-ons, sophomore Jon Taglianetti and redshirt frosh Emanuel Rackard.

The leading candidate to start at middle linebacker is sophomore Dan Mason. A highly regarded prospect out of nearby Penn Hills High, Mason played in every game as a true freshman, including three starting assignments. In his first career start (in place of injured senior Adam Gunn), Mason had 11 tackles and two sacks against Navy, earning Big East Defensive Player of the Week honors. Other candidates in the middle include redshirt freshman Shane Gordon, sophomore letterman Joe Trebitz and redshirt frosh walk-on Mark Giubilato.

WHO'S GONE: Middle linebacker Adam Gunn has graduated after a first-team All-Big East senior year in 2009.

WHO'S NEW: The Panthers' lone signee at linebacker is Eric Williams, a two-way standout at safety and receiver at Pennsbury (Pa.) High who earned acclaim from the recruiting services in the "athlete" category.

NOTABLE: Pitt's starting middle linebacker has been named first team All-Big East for five consecutive seasons, including H.B. Blades (2005-06), Scott McKillop (2007-08) and, most recently, Adam Gunn.

Safety Dom DeCicco

SECONDARY

WHO'S BACK: Pitt returns both starting safeties but will need to audition new faces at its cornerback spots.

Senior Dom DeCicco enters his third year as a starting safety. Owing the size of a linebacker (6-4, 230), DeCicco collected 88 tackles and tied for the team lead with three interceptions during his All-Big East junior season. At the other safety spot, Jarred Holley stepped into the starting lineup as a redshirt frosh when injuries struck and performed at a productive level (three picks and 48 tackles). The door was opened for Holley after sophomore Andrew Taglianetti sustained a season-ending knee injury in the year's second game. Taglianetti took a medical redshirt and is expected to be at full strength for fall training camp.

Providing depth at safety will be redshirt freshmen Jason Hendricks and Kolby Gray, a converted quarterback. Also in the mix will be sophomore walk-ons Marco Pecora and Pat Costello, who both lettered on special teams last year, and junior walk-on Todd Gilcrist.

Top returning candidates for the starting cornerback roles are senior Ricky Gary and junior Antwuan Reed. Gary is a three-year letterman with 10 career starts, while Reed has been a primary reserve the last two years. Expected to provide immediate competition is junior-college transfer Saheed Imoru, who joined the Panthers in January after a standout two-year career at Navarro College in Texas. Also vying for time will be juniors Buddy Jackson and Aundre Wright, who lettered at receiver the past two seasons. (Wright suffered a left knee injury near the end of spring drills that required surgery and a timetable for his return is unknown.) A pair of walk-ons, senior Dan Cafaro and sophomore Jeremiah Davis, are also in the corner mix.

WHO'S GONE: Both starting cornerbacks were lost to graduation, including two-time All-Big East performer Aaron Berry and four-year letterman Jovani Chappel.

WHO'S NEW: Along with mid-year junior-college transfer Saheed Imoru, Pitt will add four incoming defensive backs, including Pennsylvania products Derrick Burns (Wilmington Area) and Brandon Ifill (Penn Hills). Former Pittsburgh resident Jeff Knox joins the Panthers after two standout seasons at DeMatha Catholic in Maryland. Additionally, Pitt will gain the services of All-New Jersey performer K'Waun Williams out of St. Joseph Regional.

NOTABLE: Pitt intercepted 15 passes in 2009, with nine of those coming from the safety position. Starting safeties Dom DeCicco and Jarred Holley paced the team with three each.

Defensive End
Greg Romeus

THE SPECIALISTS

WHO'S BACK: Dan Hutchins performed exceptionally in his dual role as Pitt's starting placekicker and punter last season. Hutchins was selected All-Big East after leading the conference in scoring (8.8 points/game), field goals (1.77 field goals/game) and field goal percentage (79.3%, 23 of 29). Fittingly, he capped the 2009 season with a game-winning 33-yard field goal against North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. As a punter, he averaged 41.1 yards on 44 attempts.

Depth at placekicker will come from sophomore Kevin Harper, who could also emerge as Pitt's kickoff specialist, and junior walk-on Garrett Tonio. Vying to be the backup punter are a pair of walk-ons in redshirt freshman Matt Yoklic and sophomore Aaron Hassett.

Juniors John Fieger and Andrew Janocko return as Pitt's long snapper and holder, respectively. Redshirt freshman walk-on Kevin Barthelemy will provide depth at snapper.

The Panthers' return game boasts experience and big-play capability. Sophomores Cameron Saddler (25.3 avg.) and Ray Graham (22.5 avg.) are back as Pitt's primary kick returners. Other kick return candidates include sophomore Chris Burns and redshirt freshman Jason Douglas.

Junior Aaron Smith will again handle punt returns (6.4 avg.). Competition for those duties will come from Saddler, Douglas and sophomore Jarred Holley.

WHO'S GONE: Luke Briggs, the Panthers' kickoff specialist the past two years, has graduated.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt did not sign any specialists in its 2010 recruiting class.

NOTABLE: Dan Hutchins set Pitt single-season records for kick scoring (115 points) and field goals made (23). The scoring record was held for 33 years by Carson Long, who had 99 points during the Panthers' 1976 national title season.

PITT

PITT

DAVE WANNSTEDT

HEAD COACH

The Pitt football program's stock continues to rise under the direction of Dave Wannstedt, who enters his sixth year as head coach of the Panthers.

Wannstedt's tenure at his alma mater has been marked by unmistakable progress and achievement. The 2009 season was the latest example of Pitt's ascendance under his direction. Among the highlights:

- The Panthers finished with a 10-3 record, capped by an exciting 19-17 victory over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. It was the program's winningest campaign since 1981.
- Pitt's 10 victories secured a final national ranking of No. 15 in both polls, the Panthers' highest final listing since 1982.
- Over the past two seasons, Pitt has produced 19 wins, the second highest total in the Big East Conference and among the top 25 nationally.

On an individual level, Pitt players again were recognized among the very best in all of college football. Tight end Dorin Dickerson earned first team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the third player in the past four seasons under Wannstedt to earn that prestigious accolade.

Tailback Dion Lewis was the most decorated freshman in the country after rushing for 1,799 yards last year. Lewis was named the national freshman of the year by Sporting News and CBS Sports. Additionally, he earned Big East Offensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year honors from the league's coaches.

On the other side of the ball, defensive end Greg Romeus and defensive tackle Mick Williams shared the Big East Defensive Player of the Year honor, the first time in the league's history a pair of teammates received the award in the same season.

All indications are that this success is just the beginning for the Panthers. With Wannstedt's recent string of strong recruiting classes, and the infusion of a winning culture at Pitt, the Panthers appear primed to continue their rise.

A winning brand of football is nothing new to Wannstedt. The 35-year coaching veteran has been part of 12 bowl teams as a collegiate coach, including two undefeated national champions — the 1976 Pitt Panthers and 1987 Miami Hurricanes. In total, his 19 years of collegiate coaching experience include 13 winning campaigns and a 147-74-4 record.

On the professional level, Wannstedt was part of six NFL playoff teams and a Super Bowl champion (the 1992 Dallas Cowboys).

Although his professional travels have taken him all over the country, Wannstedt has always considered Pittsburgh his home.

When Wannstedt speaks about Pitt and Pittsburgh, there is an unmistakable strength of conviction. He owns not one but two degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. He is a living, breathing example of a Pitt education and Pitt football.

"There might be no other coach in the country who knows the very soil beneath him better than 'Wanny,'" CBSSports.com senior writer Dennis Dodd said. "Wannstedt's blood and sweat literally stain the grass at his alma mater."

"I wouldn't want to do this job anywhere else," Wannstedt said. "I love Pitt and I love the city of Pittsburgh."

The scene outside of Wannstedt's office windows in the Pitt football practice facility provides a view that is uniquely Pittsburgh and totally fitting for the Panthers' head coach.

The immediate view is to the east, where in the foreground the Panthers' lush grass practice fields capture the eye.

Just beyond the green fields sit steel mills, a reminder of the city's industrial heritage and, for decades, the economic lifeblood of the region.

A gaze back to the west and one can soak in Pittsburgh's breathtaking skyline. The skyscrapers now symbolize the "new Pittsburgh," the former steel city that has evolved into a thriving center for corporations, medicine and higher education.

Although he spent most of the last three decades residing outside of Pittsburgh, these views still remain familiar and comforting for Wannstedt.

He, too, once worked during the summers in the mills that inhabited a stretch of land located off Pittsburgh's Second Avenue. Wannstedt would labor alongside his father, Frank, and then head to old Pitt Stadium to pump a different kind of iron in the Panthers' weight room in preparation for the upcoming season.

Each of these scenes — the football fields, steel mills and the city — are embedded in Wannstedt. "Pittsburgh never really left me," he said. "It's always been a special place in my heart."

That is why, more than 30 years after captaining the Panthers' 1973 Fiesta Bowl team, Wannstedt was the perfect choice to lead the University of Pittsburgh's football program. He was named Pitt's 34th head coach on December 23, 2004.

"This opportunity is something I have dreamed about since my early coaching days at Pitt," said Wannstedt.

A rugged offensive tackle for the Panthers from 1970-73, Wannstedt returned to his alma mater with three decades of highly accomplished coaching experience on the collegiate level and in the National Football League. His career has produced three championship rings, including a Super Bowl title and two national collegiate championships.

These days, Wannstedt only wears his Pitt 1976 national championship ring. "Our players and prospects should know that I was part of the greatest team Pitt ever had," he said. "I take pride in that."

A "Pitt Man" through and through, Wannstedt has served as a bridge to the program's past — the visits by former players and alumni have Dave Wannstedt with former Pitt star Darrelle Revis.

"Coach Wannstedt is a tremendous person. I benefited so much from his experience and teachings. He's coached a lot of cornerbacks who have been Pro Bowl guys. One of the things he did with me when he came in was put me in their schemes. We always talked about what those Pro Bowl corners were doing that I could put into my game. It helped me get to where I am today."

— Darrelle Revis, New York Jets 2007 First-Round Draft Pick and Two-Time Pro Bowler

PITT

Dave Wannstedt played and coached under John Majors at Pitt.

"I knew he had big things ahead of him. You could see it and sense it. He was self-motivated and tough. He was fierce, and everyone around him respected him. He did things the right way, with hard work and dedication. I never had to worry about him. I also saw other players watching how he conducted himself and gravitating to him. That's why he is a great football coach — people see how much the game means to him, how hard he works."

— Former Pitt Head Coach John Majors

reached unprecedented levels — as he is driving the Panthers strongly into the future.

"Dave is a Pitt guy," said Mike Ditka, an All-America end for the Panthers before he went on to a Hall of Fame playing and coaching career in the NFL. "Dave has a commitment to this university. The excitement created since Dave came back probably hasn't happened in, what, 20 years? Dave is the right guy to lead this program. He's a young guy with a lot of enthusiasm and he's really proud to be a Pittsburgh guy."

In 2006, Wannstedt and his wife Jan gave a $250,000 gift to the University of Pittsburgh to endow a football scholarship.

"As a high school senior growing up in Baldwin, I was provided with the life-changing opportunity to receive an outstanding education and play major-college football due to a scholarship," Wannstedt said. "We want to be able to help provide those same opportunities for both current and future generations of student-athletes."

Wannstedt has clear cut goals and standards for each young man who signs with the Panthers.

"The first and most important goal we have for our players is for them to earn their degree from this outstanding institution," Wannstedt said. "That degree is a life-changing achievement. Secondly, if a young man aspires to play professional football, we are going to work hard to give him all the tools — physically, mentally and personally — that can help his dream become a reality."

"Ultimately, the University of Pittsburgh will mean more to you than just four years of school and football. Even after your last class and final game, your Pitt experience will continue to influence and inspire everything you do as a person, professional and citizen. There's a reason people from this university have helped change our world in so many positive ways. That's the power of Pitt."

Wannstedt rejoined the college ranks after spending the prior 16 years in the NFL. Eleven of those years were as a head coach, including six with the Chicago Bears (1993-98) and five with the Miami Dolphins (2000-04).

It all began, though, in Pittsburgh, where first he was a star at Baldwin High and later played a key role in Pitt football's resurgence in the 1970s.

"Dave was such a leader," said Jim Gillooly, his high school football coach. "Dave would scramble up the side of the hill on all fours, in the weeds and the brush, to get in shape. He made a big W-A-N-N in the side of the hill. That became part of our drill, the Wannstedt Drill. Even after Dave was gone."

Wannstedt was a three-sport star for Baldwin in football, basketball and track and field. He earned all-state in football and played in the prestigious Big 33 Classic all-star game. Wannstedt captained both the Highlanders' football and basketball squads before graduating in 1970.

Earning a scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh, he played on the freshman team during the '70 season (freshmen were then not eligible for varsity competition) and earned a starting job as just a sophomore.

John Majors took over as head coach at Pitt for Wannstedt's senior year and led the team to a 6-4-1 regular season and Fiesta Bowl berth. The '73 campaign was the launching pad for Pitt's juggernaut success the rest of the decade that included a 55-15-1 mark (.782), a national championship and five bowls over the next six years. Wannstedt was one of the '73 team's unsung heroes, providing tough blocking from his left tackle spot. His efforts helped a young back named Tony Dorsett rush for 1,686 yards.

Although he was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 1974 draft, a neck injury cut short Wannstedt's pro aspirations. He returned to Pitt and started his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Majors in 1975 and 1976.

"I knew he had big things ahead of him," Majors said. "You could see it and sense it. He was self-motivated and tough. He was fierce, and everyone around him respected him. He did things the right way, with hard work and dedication. I never had to worry about him. I also saw other players watching how he conducted himself and gravitating to him. That's why he is a great football coach — people see how much the game means to him, how hard he works."

When Majors departed following the undefeated '76 national title season, Wannstedt served under Jackie Sherrill at Pitt in 1977 and 1978, coaching receivers and special teams.

His four years on the Panthers' staff witnessed three Top 15 national rankings, a combined 37-10-1 record (.781) and bowl invites each season. "You knew he had the talent to be a coach," Sherrill said. "Just the way he handled himself, the confidence he had, the way he handled other players."

The talent evident at Pitt launched Wannstedt into a coaching career that took him from his hometown to destinations all over the country, including a pair of NFL head coaching jobs.

During Wannstedt's head coaching tenure with the Dolphins, Miami was one of just three NFL teams from 2000-03 to record nine or more victories each year.

The Dolphins' 41-23 mark during that span tied for the club's best four-year record in nearly 20 seasons. Miami captured the AFC East Division championship in 2000 with an 11-5 record.

The Dolphins' defense that season ranked third in the NFL in points allowed (a franchise-low 226 points) and led the league with 28 interceptions. He joined the Dolphins in 1999 as assistant head coach under Jimmy Johnson.

PITT

Johnson, now an NFL analyst with FOX, and Wannstedt first teamed up together at Pitt. (Johnson was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator under Sherrill before moving on as head coach at Oklahoma State.) The pair became fast friends at Pittsburgh and Johnson ultimately would tap Wannstedt as a top lieutenant at four stops, including Oklahoma State, the University of Miami, the Dallas Cowboys and with the Dolphins.

Wannstedt concluded his Chicago Bears tenure as the third-winningest coach in the franchise's history with 41 victories. In 1994, he was named the NFC Coach of the Year by UPI and Football News after directing Chicago back to the playoffs following a three-year hiatus. Wannstedt additionally was among the top three finishers for NFL Coach of the Year honors that season by The Associated Press, Pro Football Writers, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest. The Bears were the NFL's least-penalized team for two consecutive seasons (1994-95) under his watch.

From 1989-92, Wannstedt was part of a dramatic revitalization of the Dallas Cowboys as defensive coordinator and, in his final season, assistant head coach. His tenure witnessed Dallas' transformation from a 1-15 team to Super Bowl champions in just three years. Wannstedt's 1992 defense was the NFL's youngest but went on to lead the league in total defense, allowing just 245.7 yards per game. The '92 season was punctuated with the Cowboys' 52-17 demolition of Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII as his defense forced nine turnovers. In 1990, Wannstedt's role in Dallas' revival earned him NFL Assistant Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to Dallas, Wannstedt spent three years as the defensive coordinator of the Miami Hurricanes. From 1986-88, Miami went 34-2 (.944) and won the 1987 national championship with a 12-0 record. During his tenure, the Hurricanes held opponents to just 2.2 yards per rush, gave up only 10.9 points per game and averaged 48 sacks per year. Wannstedt's defenses produced 11 NFL draft selections, including five taken in the initial two rounds.

Wannstedt's other collegiate stops included Southern California (1983-85) and Oklahoma State (1979-82). As defensive line coach at USC, he helped the Trojans capture the 1984 Pacific-10 championship and a subsequent 20-17 win over Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. Wannstedt was also the defensive line coach at Oklahoma State his initial three years before elevating to defensive coordinator in 1982.

Wannstedt is a 1974 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. He also earned his master's from Pitt in 1976. The Pitt Varsity Letter Club in 1999 named him an Awardee of Distinction for his professional and personal accomplishments following his graduation from the university. In 1990, Wannstedt was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, becoming the youngest person to receive the honor.

Wannstedt and his wife Jan have two daughters, Keri and Jami, and a grandson. Keri and her husband Mike Drew gave the Wannstedts their first grandchild, Connor David, on Sept. 28, 2007. Jami is recently engaged to Eddie Napleton.

Under the guidance of GREG GATTUSO, Pitt's defensive line has emerged as one of the team's major strengths.

Three starters on Pitt's defensive front were honored on the 2009 All-Big East Team. The Panthers, in fact, boasted the Big East Co-Defensive Players of the Year in defensive end Greg Romeus and defensive tackle Mick Williams, the first time in the conference's history that teammates have shared the defensive MVP honor.

Romeus and Williams were both first-team All-Big East selections, while defensive tackle Gus Mustakas was a second-team honoree.

Named to Dave Wannstedt's original staff in 2005, Gattuso has made invaluable contributions to the Pitt football program on and off the field. As a result, he was promoted to assistant head coach in 2008. This year marks Gattuso's sixth season overall at Pitt and his fifth coaching the defensive line.

Gattuso initially joined the Pitt staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated the nation's 10th best by Scout.com.

A Western Pennsylvania native, Gattuso owns a winning resume as a coach and player on both the collegiate and high school levels. Before joining Pitt, Gattuso spent 12 years building neighboring Duquesne University into one of the elite I-AA football programs in the country. The winningest coach in school history, the Dukes went 97-32 (.752) under his direction, won eight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) titles, made five bowl appearances and captured the 2003 consensus Mid-Major Division I-AA national championship.

Gattuso was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year. The Dukes dominated the MAAC during his tenure, going 66-7 (.904) in league play, including a 33-game winning streak.

Gattuso was an assistant coach at Duquesne in 1992 before taking over the head coaching post the following year. He previously served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-LaSalle, from 1989-91. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

A 1980 graduate of Seton-LaSalle, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season and went on to a standout career at Penn State, where he was a two-time All-East defensive lineman and a member of the Lions' 1982 national title team.

Gattuso is a 1983 graduate of Penn State with a bachelor's degree in administration and criminal justice.

PITT

The Bennett Family (from left to right): wife Julie, daughter Maddie, stepdaughter Katie White, Phil, stepdaughter Megan White and son Sam.

Nationally known as one of college football's finest defensive coaches, PHIL BENNETT is in his third season at Pitt.

The three-decade coaching veteran came to Pittsburgh in 2008 and has put his own imprint on the Panthers' defense over the past two years.

In 2009, Pitt led the entire country in sacks (3.62 sacks/game, 47 total). The Panthers also boasted impressive national ratings in rushing defense (17th, 106.31 yards/game), scoring defense (19th, 19.77 points/game) and total defense (23rd, 319.31 yards/game).

Six members of Pitt's defense were named to the 2009 All-Big East Team, including the Co-Defensive Players of the Year in end Greg Romeus and tackle Mick Williams. It was the first time in Big East history that two teammates shared the league's defensive MVP honor.

Bennett joined the Panthers after serving as head coach at Southern Methodist University from 2002-07. Prior to SMU, he oversaw some of the country's top defensive units while at such schools as Texas A&M, Kansas State and Louisiana State.

While rebuilding the program at SMU, Bennett improved the Mustangs' win total for three consecutive seasons, including his 2006 team that reached bowl eligibility and achieved the program's highest victory total in a decade. That squad also received the American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) 2006 Academic Achievement Award after SMU earned a 100% graduation rate for its freshman class of 2000-01.

Prior to SMU, Bennett was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kansas State for three years (1999-2001). During his tenure, the Wildcats finished among the nation's top five in total defense each season, including second in 1999 (235.0 yards/game), fourth in 2000 (270.54) and third in 2001 (262.36).

Bennett's secondary units were equally impressive, finishing in the top 10 in pass efficiency defense each year. The 1999 Wildcats led the entire country in pass efficiency defense with an impressive 65.7 rating. They also topped the nation in turnover margin (1.55 margin/game), collecting 21 interceptions and 17 fumbles. Two of his standouts in the secondary, Dyshod Carter and Jerametrious Butler, became just the second pair of KSU teammates to record 10 or more career interceptions. Both went on to play in the NFL.

In 1998, Bennett served as secondary coach and co-recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma as he helped the Sooners finish sixth nationally in total defense. In 1997, he was the defensive coordinator at Texas Christian and helped the Horned Frogs earn their highest defensive rankings in five years.

Bennett was the defensive coordinator at Texas A&M from 1995-96. American Football Quarterly named him its 1995 "Defensive Coordinator of the Year" after the Aggies ranked in the nation's top 10 in every major defensive category, including total defense (third), scoring defense (third) and pass efficiency defense (second).

From 1991-94, Bennett served at LSU, including his final three seasons as assistant head coach. In 1994 he was the Tigers' defensive coordinator. That season, LSU led the Southeastern Conference in every major defensive category and finished eighth nationally in total defense. Bennett's positional focus was the outside linebackers his first three seasons and the secondary his final year in Baton Rouge.

Prior to LSU, Bennett held defensive coordinator posts at Purdue (1987-90) and Iowa State (1983-86). In 1982 he coached TCU's tight ends and tackles. Bennett began his coaching career at Texas A&M as a part-time defensive ends coach from 1979-80 before assuming a full-time position in 1981.

Bennett is a 1978 graduate of Texas A&M with a B.S. in education. He was an All-Southwest Conference defensive end for the Aggies, helping them earn invitations to the Sun, Bluebonnet and Liberty bowls during his career.

The Cignetti Family, clockwise from top: Frank, wife Ellen, Ella, Gabrielle and Alyssa.

Pittsburgh native FRANK CIGNETTI, whose coaching resume includes two decades of experience on both the collegiate and NFL levels, enters his second year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Pitt.

Cignetti's impact at Pitt was immediate. The Panthers averaged 32.1 points per game, one of the top five scoring averages in school history. Pitt's offensive arsenal included a 1,700-yard rusher in Dion Lewis and 1,000-yard receiver in Jon Baldwin. Quarterback Bill Stull ranked among the nation's most efficient passers (No. 10 nationally, 150.6 rating), throwing for more than 2,600 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Seven Pitt offensive players were named All-Big East, including Lewis, who was honored as the league's Offensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year. Lewis is the nation's leading returning rusher after averaging 138.38 yards per game last year.

Pitt topped the Big East in red zone offense (91.2% success rate), third-down conversions (43%) and fewest sacks (1.15 per game). Nationally, the Panthers ranked in the top 30 in nine different offensive categories, including a No. 9 rank in pass efficiency (150.79 rating).

Cignetti was named one of college football's top 10 offensive coordinators by Sporting News. He was Pitt's 2009 nominee for the prestigious Broyles Award.

Cignetti joined Wannstedt's staff after spending the 2008 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of California. The Bears averaged nearly 33 points per game en route to a 9-4 record and victory over Miami (Fla.) in the Emerald Bowl. While at Cal, he helped oversee the development of running back Jahvid Best, who ranked among college football's most explosive performers. Best averaged 7.3 yards per carry as a collegian and was a No. 1 draft selection of the Detroit Lions.

Prior to Cal, Cignetti served as the San Francisco 49ers' quarterbacks coach in 2007. His Pitt appointment marked a return to the place where he landed his first coaching position as a Panthers graduate assistant in 1989.

Cignetti's family has deep ties to Pitt and Western Pennsylvania. His father, Frank Sr., was a Pitt assistant from 1966-68 and later the head coach at both West Virginia (1976-79) and Indiana University of Pa. (1986-2005). His brother Curt was also a Pitt assistant (1983-84 and 1993-99) who is now at Alabama.

Prior to his 49ers post, Cignetti was the offensive coordinator at North Carolina (2006) and Fresno State (2002-05). In 2004 Fresno State averaged 52.8 points over its final six games and became just the sixth team in NCAA history to score 50 or more points in four consecutive contests. The Bulldogs twice finished among the nation's top 10 in scoring and third-down conversions during Cignetti's tenure.

From 2000-01, Cignetti served as quarterbacks coach with the New Orleans Saints, where he worked with offensive coordinator Mike McCarthy, now the head coach of the Green Bay Packers. The Saints ranked among the NFL's most prolific and exciting offenses during Cignetti's tenure and captured the 2000 NFC West crown. He helped Saints QB Jeff Blake to a career-best passer rating and also helped Aaron Brooks produce some of the best statistics of his career en route to a Pro Bowl alternate selection.

Cignetti landed his first NFL appointment in 1999 as a quality control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs. From 1990-98, he was on his father's staff at IUP, where he was an all-conference safety before earning his bachelor's degree in 1988. He served IUP as receivers, secondary and quarterbacks coach before elevating to offensive coordinator. During his tenure, IUP twice advanced to the NCAA Division II national title game and earned a berth in the semifinals four times.

Cignetti additionally has served on the coaching staffs for the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine all-star games.

PITT

BRIAN ANGELICHIO

TIGHT ENDS

BRIAN ANGELICHIO is in his fifth year on Pitt's coaching staff working with the tight ends, a positional group that has become an annual strength for the Panthers.

The 2009 season was no exception. Pitt's starting tight ends, and 2010 NFL Draft picks, Nate Byham (San Francisco 49ers) and Dorin Dickerson (Houston Texans), were both named to the All-Big East Team and were major assets for the Panthers' powerful offensive attack.

Dickerson, who set a Pitt tight end record with 10 touchdown catches last year, was named to the 2009 Football Writers Association All-America Team. He was the first Pitt tight end to earn that designation since the legendary Mike Ditka, a two-way end for the Panthers, was honored in 1960. Dickerson additionally was a finalist for the prestigious John Mackey Award.

Byham repeated as an All-Big East selection in 2009, becoming the first Pitt tight end to twice earn all-conference.

Angelichio also oversaw the development of former Pitt tight end Darrell Strong, a free-agent signee of the Oakland Raiders in 2008. Strong was invited to the '08 Hula Bowl, the first Pitt tight end to play in that historic all-star game since 1981.

Angelichio joined Pitt as a well-rounded football coach following his 10-year tenure at Ithaca College (1996-2005). Named Ithaca's offensive coordinator in 2000, Angelichio molded a highly productive unit that set or tied 30 team and individual records over his final five seasons. The Bombers averaged nearly 40 points per game in 2005 to rank 18th nationally on the NCAA Division III level.

Angelichio oversaw the development of seven All-Americans at Ithaca, which advanced to the postseason in seven of his 10 years. His offenses averaged more than 30 points per game in six of his final eight seasons. Before elevating to his offensive coordinator post, Angelichio coached Ithaca's linebackers (1996-97) and receivers (1998). He oversaw the offensive line from 1999-2005.

In addition to football, Angelichio was a member of Ithaca's baseball staff for nine years, helping the Bombers to the NCAA playoffs each season.

A 1995 graduate of St. Lawrence with a bachelor's in physical education, Angelichio was a member of the Saints' football and baseball teams. He was a three-year starter at outside linebacker and also was a captain and four-year starter on the baseball team. Angelichio spent a season as secondary coach at Brockport (1995) before coming to Ithaca. He earned his master's from Ithaca in 1997.

Bernard and Tammy Clark Jr.

Dave Wannstedt tapped into his Florida past to find the newest member of his coaching staff.

BERNARD CLARK JR., a standout player on Wannstedt's great defenses at the University of Miami during the late 1980s, was named Pitt's linebacker coach in February.

Clark himself was a linebacker for the Miami Hurricanes from 1985-89 and played on two national championship teams ('87 and '89). He was a prominent contributor during Wannstedt's tenure as Miami's defensive coordinator from 1986-88, a three-year stretch that saw the Hurricanes limit its opponents to just 2.2 yards per rush and 10.9 points per game.

In the 1988 Orange Bowl against No. 1 Oklahoma, Clark started at middle linebacker and collected 14 tackles, including 12 solo stops, to earn Most Valuable Player honors. The Hurricanes topped the Sooners, 20-14, to cap a 12-0 season and claim the national title.

Clark joins Pitt after serving as the defensive coordinator at Hampton University during the 2009 season. He began his collegiate coaching career at James Madison University, where he coached defensive ends for two seasons (1998-99). He then moved to Liberty University, serving as linebacker coach and overseeing special teams from 2000-03.

Clark had two stints at Florida International University (FIU), initially serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach during the 2004 and '05 seasons. He then spent a year in the Big East Conference at the University of South Florida, coaching the Bulls' defensive line in 2006, before returning to FIU for the '07 and '08 seasons.

Clark graduated from Miami in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He was a third-round selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1990 draft and spent three seasons in the NFL, including time with the Bengals and Seattle Seahawks. Clark also played two years in the Arena Football League with the Orlando Predators (1994 and '96).

A native of Tampa, Fla., Clark was a decorated athlete at Leto High School.

JEFF HAFLEY

SECONDARY

JEFF HAFLEY enters his third year as Pitt's secondary coach and fifth season overall on Dave Wannstedt's staff.

One of the Big East's brightest young coaches, Hafley previously served as Pitt's defensive graduate assistant in 2006 and '07 with a specific focus on the cornerbacks. He was promoted to his current capacity during the 2008 offseason and has established himself as a major asset for the Panthers on the field and the recruiting trail.

The 2009 season was a continuation of that trend. Hafley had two of his defensive backs selected to the All-Big East Team, including cornerback Aaron Berry and strong safety Dom DeCicco. It was the second All-Big East honor for Berry, who played in the prestigious East-West Shrine Bowl and signed with the Detroit Lions following his successful senior season.

Moreover, free safety Jarred Holley drew accolades as one of the top impact freshmen in the Big East following his productive debut season in 2009.

Prior to Pitt, Hafley served at the University of Albany for four seasons (2002-05), including his final two as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator. In his initial two years Hafley was a graduate assistant who coached Albany's defensive tackles and outside linebackers.

While at Albany, Hafley oversaw the development of cornerback/roverback Kurt Campbell, who went on to become the first player in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft. Campbell was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 2005 before going on to join the Tennessee Titans.

Hafley served as the running backs coach at Worcester Polytechnic Institute during the 2001 season. In addition to overseeing the running backs, he also worked significantly with WPI's special teams and coached the kickers.

Jeff and Gina Hafley.

Hafley was a four-year wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000. He began his coaching career at his alma mater while recovering from three separate surgeries that kept him off the field. Hafley is a 2001 cum laude graduate of Siena with a bachelor's degree in history. He earned his master's from Albany in 2003.

SCOTT TURNER, an offensive assistant the past two seasons for the Pitt football program, was promoted to wide receivers coach this past January by Dave Wannstedt.

As a member of Pitt's offensive staff in 2008 and 2009, Turner aided in the accomplishment of back-to-back 1,000-yard rushers in LeSean McCoy and Dion Lewis. He also contributed to a 2009 unit that produced a 1,700-yard rusher (Lewis) and 1,000-yard receiver (Jon Baldwin). Lewis was named the Big East Offensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year, compiling a Pitt freshman-record 1,799 rush yards and 18 total touchdowns.

Pitt averaged 32.1 points per game in 2009, one of the top five scoring averages in school history.

A former quarterback at UNLV, Turner joined the Pitt staff in 2008 after working the prior two years on the prep level at South County Secondary School in Virginia.

As South County's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, he helped the program to its first-ever playoff berth and also orchestrated an offense that produced two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season.

In 2005, Turner was an administrative graduate assistant at Oregon State under Mike Riley. His responsibilities included assisting in all aspects of the Beavers' program with a special focus on the offense's weekly preparation.

Turner was a three-year letterman at UNLV, earning his bachelor's degree in psychology from the university in 2005.

Scott is the son of Norv Turner, the current head coach of the San Diego Chargers. Norv and Dave Wannstedt served together on Jimmy Johnson's Dallas Cowboys staffs of the early 1990s. Norv additionally was offensive coordinator with the Dolphins in 2002 and 2003 during Wannstedt's head coaching tenure in Miami.

PITT

DAVID WALKER is in his sixth season as running backs coach at Pitt and has been instrumental in helping the Panthers develop a potent, game-changing rushing attack.

Pitt is quickly developing a reputation for producing top-flight backs. Former Panthers LeSean McCoy and LaRod Stephens-Howling enjoyed productive rookie years in the NFL last year, while Dion Lewis arrived on the Pitt scene in 2009 and finished his debut season as the most decorated freshman in college football.

The country's third-leading rusher (138.38 yards per game), Lewis was named the National Freshman of the Year by Sporting News and CBSSports.com. He was selected to no fewer than eight All-America teams and additionally was honored as the Big East's Offensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year, becoming the first player since Virginia Tech quarterback Michael Vick in 1999 to earn both honors in the same season.

Lewis rushed for 1,799 yards on 325 carries (5.5 avg.), surpassing the 36-year-old Pitt freshman mark held by the legendary Tony Dorsett (1,686 in 1973). Overall, Lewis' total was the second-highest single-season rushing mark in Pitt history, trailing only Dorsett's 2,150 yards in 1976, the same year he won the Heisman Trophy and the Panthers won the national championship with a 12-0 record.

Lewis totaled 18 touchdowns (17 rushing) for a Pitt freshman-record 108 points, breaking the prior frosh record of 90 set in 2007 by McCoy.

McCoy, now of the Philadelphia Eagles, was a major beneficiary of Walker's influence. In just two collegiate seasons, he rushed for 2,816 yards and scored 36 touchdowns, both Pitt records for production as a freshman and sophomore.

A 2008 unanimous All-Big East selection and the media's Big East Offensive Player of the Year, McCoy ranked second in the nation in scoring (tied, 9.69 points/game) and 10th in rushing (114.46 yards/game) that year. He finished with 1,488 yards to become only the third Pitt running back to achieve multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

Stephens-Howling was a four-year letterman at tailback for Pitt and now is a member of the Arizona Cardinals. Stephens-Howling compiled more than 3,100 all-purpose yards as a Panther.

In total, Walker has coached eight backs who have gone on to play in the NFL.

Before joining Pitt, Walker served as running backs coach at Syracuse from 1995-2004, and tutored four 1,000-yard rushers in his last five years with the Orange.

Syracuse boasted a potent 1-2 punch in the backfield in 2004 with All-Big East running backs Walter Reyes and Damien Rhodes combining for 1,673 yards and 17 touchdowns. Reyes finished his career as SU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards.

Walker oversaw four consecutive 1,000-yard rushers from 2000-03, a Syracuse record. In '03, Reyes rushed for 1,347 yards, the second-highest single-season total in school history. His 21 touchdowns set an Orange record. Overall, Walker coached three of the Orange's top seven all-time leading rushers.

A 1993 graduate of Syracuse, Walker was an outstanding running back himself, twice earning All-Big East honors. He captained the 1992 team, leading it to a No. 6 national ranking, 10-2 overall record and 26-22 victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. Walker remains the sixth-leading rusher in Orange history with 2,643 yards.

Following a year as an assistant coach at Miami's Carol City High School in 1994-95, Walker rejoined his alma mater and helped the Orange to four Big East championships. Including his playing career, he has been part of 14 bowl games.

Walker earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1993.

MIAMI (FLA.), 1985-88, offensive line.
PITTSBURGH, 2008-present, offensive line.

TONY WISE, an accomplished 37-year coaching veteran of collegiate and professional football, is in his third season as Pitt's offensive line coach.

Wise's offensive line was instrumental in helping the Panthers' average 32.1 points per game last year, one of the top five scoring averages in school history. The Panthers gave up only 1.15 sacks per game, tops in the Big East and 16th nationally.

Moreover, Pitt's offensive front paved the way for the country's No. 3 rusher in Dion Lewis (138.38 yards per game). Lewis' total of 1,799 yards is the second-highest single-season total in Pitt history.

Under Wise's guidance, guard John Malecki and tackle Jason Pinkston were first-team All-Big East honorees in 2009. Pinkston was also named a second team All-American by SI.com and Rivals.com.

In 2008, Pitt's offensive line helped produce the nation's 10th-leading rusher in LeSean McCoy (1,488 yards and 21 touchdowns). Offensive guard C.J. Davis was selected first team All-Big East that year and now is a member of the Carolina Panthers.

Wise's Pitt appointment reunited him with Dave Wannstedt, who he coached with on six prior occasions, and returned him to a place where he received one of his first college coaching positions.

Wannstedt and Wise first worked together on Jackie Sherrill's Pitt coaching staff during the 1977 and '78 seasons. Wannstedt coached receivers and special teams under Sherrill, while Wise was the Panthers' assistant offensive line coach. They would go on to serve on the same staffs with Oklahoma State, the University of Miami, the Dallas Cowboys and during Wannstedt's head coaching tenures with the Chicago Bears and Miami Dolphins.

Prior to his 2008 return to Pitt, Wise spent 18 years coaching offensive lines in the National Football League, including the 2006 and '07 seasons with the New York Jets. From 2001-04, he spent four seasons at Miami, where his offensive lines helped produce the two highest individual single-season rushing totals in franchise history. During the 2002 season, the Dolphins rushed for 156.4 yards per game to rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

From 1999-2000, Wise served with the Carolina Panthers. During the '99 season, Carolina averaged 4.3 yards per rush to rank fifth in the NFL. Wise served on Wannstedt's Chicago staff from 1993-98. In four of those six seasons, the Bears ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in fewest sacks allowed, including a league-low 15 in 1995. Wise added the duties of assistant head coach his final four seasons in Chicago.

Wise's NFL career began in 1989 with the Dallas Cowboys, where he coached the offensive line for four seasons (1989-92) under Jimmy Johnson. Wise's line paved the way for Emmitt Smith, who claimed back-to-back NFL rushing titles in 1991 and 1992. Smith rushed for 1,563 yards during the '91 campaign and 1,713 during the Cowboys' Super Bowl championship season in '92.

Dallas rolled past Buffalo, 52-17, in Super Bowl XXVII, the Cowboys' first NFL title in 15 years. Wise's offensive front was vital to the championship run, allowing the second-fewest sacks in the NFL (23). He coached a pair of 1992 Pro Bowlers in center Mark Stepnoski, a former Pitt standout, and guard Nate Newton.

Wise also served under Johnson while with the Miami Hurricanes from 1985-88. His UM tenure witnessed the Hurricanes' emergence as a national power. Miami went 34-2 during Wise's final three seasons there, including a 12-0 mark in winning the 1987 national championship.

A native of Newtonville, N.Y., Wise was an offensive lineman at Ithaca College from 1969-72. He also lettered in lacrosse at Ithaca and played on the school's hockey team. Wise began his coaching career in 1973 at Albany State, where he worked with the outside linebackers. He later coached the offensive lines at Bridgeport (1974), Central Connecticut (1975) and on Jackie Sherrill's staff at Washington State (in 1976 as assistant offensive line coach). Wise's additional collegiate stops include Oklahoma State (under Jimmy Johnson from 1979-83) and Syracuse (1984).

BUDDY MORRIS

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Pitt players and coaches alike readily credit BUDDY MORRIS' strength and conditioning program as a vital factor in the Panthers' consecutive trips to the postseason.

Game-changing strength and conditioning levels are what Dave Wannstedt envisioned when he lured Morris back to Pitt to oversee the Panthers' physical development in December 2006. His arrival infused the Pitt weight room with a new sense of purpose and dedication, resulting in elevated performance on the field.

Not coincidentally, Pitt has won eight games over the last three seasons with fourth-quarter comebacks, including its 19-17 victory over North Carolina in the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl. "We want to be getting stronger as the game goes on," Morris says. "We train and prepare so that when the fourth quarter comes and the game is on the line, we're ready to respond."

Pitt's weight room, dubbed the "Pitt Iron Works" by Morris, was recently honored by Muscle & Fitness magazine as one of the "top 10 toughest gyms in the United States."

Pitt Iron Works "is home to a college strength and conditioning program unlike any other," writes Muscle & Fitness. "Nobody does it like Pitt," says Elite Fitness Systems owner Dave Tate. "I deal with just about every program in the country, and what they're doing there is unique. From what I've seen, Iron Works is the primary reason for Pitt's turnaround, and the work they're doing will keep them among college football's best for years to come."

Morris owns an accomplished history of training elite players at both the collegiate and NFL levels. The 1980 Pitt graduate previously served as the football team's strength and conditioning coach from 1980-89 and 1997-2001.

"Buddy Morris has trained some of the greatest names in college and professional football," Wannstedt said. "He knows what it takes to make a football player — and a football team — reach his highest potential in strength training and physical conditioning."

His workout regimens are highly regarded and include a focus on strength training, speed development, conditioning, agility training and flexibility. Morris' take on football strength and conditioning was featured on ESPN.com this past offseason.

Morris rejoined Pitt after serving at the University of Buffalo in 2006 as its director of sports performance and was directly responsible for training the Bulls' football team. Prior to Buffalo, he was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2002-05, serving under head coach Butch Davis.

In his prior Pitt training stints, Morris' pupils included such legendary figures as Jim Covert, Bill Fralic, Russ Grimm, Dan Marino and Mark Stepnoski among others. He additionally trained latter-day Pitt stars Ruben Brown and Curtis Martin, two of the NFL's most accomplished players over the past decade.

A former Pitt student-athlete himself, Morris was a four-year letterman in track and field for the Panthers from 1977-80.

After spending nearly four decades in the coaching ranks, BOB JUNKO moved to the administrative side of college football in 2007 as Pitt's director of football relations and program enhancement.

Junko is a natural for the role given his tremendous football acumen and contacts. Now in his fourth year in that capacity, he assists in the daily operations of the program and also has a focus on the Panthers' extended family of football alumni.

One of the best-known football figures in the tri-state area, Junko has been a highly valuable figure within the Pitt program. He played a major role in the Panthers' recruiting successes earlier this decade and in 2006 was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com.

The 2010 season marks the 14th year of Junko's second tour at Pittsburgh. He initially coached at Pitt from 1982-85, serving as defensive coordinator under head coach Foge Fazio. He returned in 1997 as defensive tackles coach under Walt Harris and was elevated to assistant head coach in 2000.

Prior to returning to Pittsburgh, Junko was the defensive coordinator at Kent State from 1995-96. Junko also served as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator for seven years at Akron (1988-94). He additionally held similar positions at Northwestern, TCU and Tulsa, his alma mater.

In his first stint with the Panthers, the 1982 team received a Cotton Bowl bid and finished ninth in the country. The 1983 Panthers earned a Fiesta Bowl berth and ranked 19th in the final polls.

Among the standouts on those defenses were tackle Bill Maas, defensive end Chris Doleman and defensive backs Tim Lewis and Tom Flynn, all of whom went on to careers in the NFL.

As a collegian, Junko starred at Tulsa as an inside linebacker and was an Honorable Mention All-American in 1967. He also was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team twice and served as team captain.

Junko earned a bachelor's degree in history education in 1968 and his master's in educational administration in 1970 at Tulsa. He was inducted into the University of Tulsa Sports Hall of Fame in 2007.

MATT DUDEK

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Matt Dudek enters his first year as assistant director of football operations. Dudek enters this new position after serving as an academic counselor for football for two seasons. In addition, he also served as the academic coordinator for women's tennis and gymnastics and was the Disability Resource Services liaison and the Continuing Eligibility Certification representative. Dudek was familiar with the football program prior to joining the academic staff as he spent two years as a video graduate assistant for the Panthers.

In 2008, Dudek earned his Instruction and Learning Master's of Education, graduating summa cum laude. He earned his Pennsylvania Instructional Certification in Secondary Social Studies Education in 2007 and currently works as a mentor to inner-city youth.

Dudek earned a degree in psychology with related area in linguistics from Pitt in 2003, graduating with cum laude honors. Following graduation, he worked at Maxim Crane Works as the assistant to the CEO/general manager and went on to become the youngest general manager in company history.

Dudek is married to the former Lindsay Campbell, who earned her Doctorate of Pharmacy in 2006 from the Pitt School of Pharmacy. The couple resides in Penn Township with their daughter Abigail.

ERIC THATCHER

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Eric Thatcher, a former standout safety at Pitt from 2004-08, enters his first season as a defensive assistant for the Panthers. Thatcher rejoined his alma mater after coaching the defensive backs at nearby St. Vincent College last year.

In addition to assisting defensive coordinator Phil Bennett with the Panthers' weekly game planning, Thatcher will have a positional focus on the linebackers.

Thatcher finished his Pitt career by making 25 consecutive starts at free safety. He was considered the "quarterback" of the Panthers' secondary his junior and senior seasons, making all the calls in the defensive backfield. His play helped the 2007 unit surrender only 297 yards per game to rank fifth nationally.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Thatcher was a first team All-Greater Catholic League performer at famed Cincinnati Moeller High. A four-year varsity contributor, he distinguished himself as a defensive back and all-purpose player on offense.

Thatcher earned his bachelor's degree in administration of justice from Pitt in 2008.

LUKE GETSY

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Luke Getsy enters his first season as an offensive assistant with the Pitt program after spending one season as the offensive coordinator at West Virginia Wesleyan College. Getsy will work extensively with offensive coordinator Frank Cignetti and Pitt's quarterbacks.

Getsy returns to Pitt after suiting up for the Panthers from 2002 to 2003 at quarterback. The Munhall, Pa., native completed his career at Akron, breaking or tying 24 school records, while leading the Zips to a Mid-American Conference title in 2005.

After spending training camp with the San Francisco 49ers as a rookie free agent in 2007, Getsy returned to Akron and spent two seasons as a graduate assistant/quarterbacks coach, before being hired as offensive coordinator at West Virginia Wesleyan College in 2009.

Getsy is a 2007 graduate of Akron in marketing management and sales management. He is married to the former Tina Smith, also of Munhall.

DEMETREUS H. DARDEN

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Demetreus Darden enters his fifth year as an academic counselor with the Pitt football program, and is in his ninth year working with students at the collegiate level.

Darden, a native of Farrell, Pa., joined the University of Pittsburgh in December 2005. His primary responsibilities at Pitt are monitoring academic development, course scheduling and degree completion of junior and senior football players.

In addition to his responsibilities with football, Darden serves as the academic coordinator for the men's and women's cross country and track and field teams.

Prior to his time at Pitt, Darden worked at neighboring Carnegie Mellon University as a program associate, working in support services for minority students.

Darden graduated from Kent State in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in history. Shortly after graduation he began his career in higher education as a student-activities coordinator at Kent State University's Trumbull Campus.

CHARLES SMALL

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Charles Small enters his first year as an academic counselor for football, and his third overall in the Pitt athletic department. Small comes to academics from the Panther Game Plan Life Skills Program, where he served as the Assistant Director of Life Skills for two years.

While a part of Pitt's Life Skills program, Small's primary role was to coordinate and track the community service projects for student-athletes and assist in coordinating life skills programs associated with the Panther Game Plan's other commitment areas including Athletic Achievement, Academic Achievement, Career and Graduate School Preparation, Personal Development, Health and Wellness, Financial Education and Character and Leadership Development.

CHARLES SMALL (CONTINUED)

As a walk-on on the Pitt men's basketball team from 2002-06, Small earned three varsity letters. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 2006 with a social work degree and earned several academic honors including Big East Academic Honor Roll status and University of Pittsburgh Scholar-Athlete accolades throughout his undergraduate career. In 2007, Small obtained a master's degree in social work. Currently, he is working on a doctorate degree in higher education management in the School of Education. Small is married to fellow University of Pittsburgh alumnus Celeste Small.

JEN TUSCANO

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Jen Tuscano, in her seventh year as an academic coordinator at Pitt, begins her second season with the football team in 2010.

Tuscano will work primarily with the freshman class, and also continues her duties as academic coordinator for the Pitt women's basketball program and the men's soccer team. In addition to her responsibilities on the academic side, Tuscano lends her knowledge and insight to the women's basketball radio broadcasts.

In her first season at Pitt, Tuscano helped lead the women's basketball team to Academic All-America Team status and has been instrumental in head coach Agnus Berenato's seven-year perfect record of graduating players who have completed their eligibility as a Panther.

Tuscano joined the Panthers after serving as the athletic director at Meyersdale Area School District, where she was responsible for scheduling all athletics events, as well as directing and supervising after-school tutoring programs for student-athletes. Tuscano also served as head coach of the Meyersdale Area Junior High girl's basketball team from 1997-2004 and was a member of the Meyersdale Athletic Boosters, the PIAA District 5 Committee and the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

Tuscano received her bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown in 1999, where she spent four years on the women's basketball team. She completed her master's degree in sports science from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 2007.

JAMES SMITH

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

James Smith enters his fourth season with Pitt football, teaming with Buddy Morris in overseeing the Panthers' physical preparation regimen.

Smith boasts impressive experience in physical preparation training. He lectures, consults and has written extensively on the subject, authoring two training manuals and a lecture DVD sold worldwide. He has also served as editor to select publications by Dr. Yuri Verkhoshansky and teamed with six-time Ultimate Fighting Champion Randy Couture as a co-author in writing a book outlining Couture's training and physical preparation for the sport of Mixed Martial Arts.

Smith joined Pitt after a three-year tenure at West Valley High School in Cottonwood Calif., where he was a physical education advisor, track and field coach and physical preparation coach for the school's highly successful football program. James and his wife Amber also founded, owned and operated the Power Development Inc., training hall for athletes in Cottonwood.

From 1998-2003, Smith served in the United States Navy. A year-and-a-half of his five-year enlistment was spent in Basic Underwater Demolition SEAL training in Coronado, Calif. As a result, James continues to consult with U.S. Navy SEALs and other military special operations commandos, both foreign and domestic, in their training.

Smith graduated cum laude from Berklee College of Music. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and additionally is certified in CPR.

TIM DUNLAVEY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tim Dunlavey enters his third season as an assistant athletic trainer for the Pitt football team. He assists head athletic trainer Rob Blanc in all aspects of the Panthers' sports medicine needs.

Dunlavey came to Pitt from Penn State, where he served as an assistant athletic trainer for their men's and women's track and field teams in 2007-08.

The 2004 Pitt graduate in rehabilitation sciences earned his master's in allied health management from Ohio State in 2007, where he also served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Buckeye football team. In between his two degrees, Dunlavey served as a certified athletic training intern with the Northwestern football team from 2004-2005. He is an NATABOC certified athletic trainer with certified first aid, CPR and AED training and is an accredited clinical instructor.

DALE THORNTON

GRADUATE ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dale Thornton enters his first year as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for Pitt football. Thornton earned his Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training in April of 2010 from the University of Pittsburgh.

In addition to stints with Pitt football, swimming and diving and baseball as an undergraduate, Thornton worked at Carnegie Mellon University from January to April of 2010 as an athletic training student. In the summer of 2009, Thornton served as an athletic training intern with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Thornton, a McKeesport native, is a student member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society and the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association. In addition, Thornton is certified in CPR and AED by the American Red Cross and an EMT by the Pennsylvania Department of Health.

CHAD LEE

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Chad Lee enters his third season as a full-time assistant coach with Pitt's strength and conditioning program after serving three years as a graduate assistant. In this capacity Lee assists Buddy Morris and James Smith with the Panthers' various training regimens throughout the year.

A 2004 graduate of Louisville with a bachelor's degree in justice administration, Lee was a standout linebacker for the Cardinals. He lettered at UL from 1999-2002, helping the Cardinals to four consecutive bowl games and two Conference USA titles. Lee was named to the league's All-Freshman Team and was also a UL Defensive MVP.

JEFF WALLO

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Jeff Wallo enters his second season as the Panthers' video coordinator.

Wallo came to Pittsburgh from the NFL, where he served as an assistant video director for the Cleveland Browns from 2001-09. In 1999, Wallo first joined the Browns' staff as an intern and was promoted to a full-time video assistant for the 2000 season.

Wallo got his start on the collegiate level at Ohio State, where he served as a student assistant for video for two seasons prior to his graduation in 1998.

The Youngstown, Ohio, native is married to wife Rashel. The couple has a son, Jackson, born August 25, 2008.

TIM ENRIGHT

HEAD FOOTBALL EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Tim Enright is in his 14th year as the head equipment manager for the Pitt football team.

In this capacity he supervises the equipment operation for the 100-plus member team, including organizing travel and transportation of equipment for away games and managing the day-to-day equipment needs for the players and coaching staff.

Enright has a long association with Pitt football and the University of Pittsburgh. As an undergraduate at Pitt, he was a student football manager (1987-91) and served as the team's head manager his senior year.

Following graduation in 1991, Enright worked one year at Martin Media Advertising before serving as a youth counselor at the Shuman Detention Center. He returned to his alma mater in 1993 as an assistant equipment manager in charge of the men's basketball team.

Enright was promoted to his current post with the football team in 1997. He has handled the equipment travel for 10 bowl teams in total at Pitt.

DENNIS TUSCIC

VIDEO GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Dennis Tuscic enters his second season as a video graduate assistant for the Panthers under director Jeff Wallo. In this capacity, he serves the team's various practice and game film needs.

Tuscic handles the creation and production of filming practices and games, as well as highlights.

The New Brighton, Pa., native earned his degree in economics from the University of Pittsburgh in 2008. Tuscic is currently working on his MBA from Pitt's Katz Graduate School of Business.

ROD RUTHERFORD

VIDEO ASSISTANT

Rod Rutherford, a two-time All-Big East quarterback during his accomplished Pitt career from 1999-2003, returned to his alma mater in 2009 as a graduate assistant and will continue on in 2010 as a video assistant.

Rutherford, who spent 2008 as secondary coach at nearby St. Vincent College, served as a defensive assistant last season with his positional focus on the linebackers.

Rutherford finished his collegiate career as one of the most prolific signal-callers in Pitt and Big East history. As a senior he was a unanimous first-team All-Big East selection after setting five conference records.

He additionally set or tied seven Pitt marks, matching a pair of longstanding records established by the legendary Dan Marino, including single-season touchdown passes (37) and consecutive games with a

TD pass (19).

Rutherford finished his all-star senior year ranked among the country's top 10 in three different statistical categories, including points responsible for (tied for fourth, 18.0 pts./game), passing efficiency (157.4 rating, eighth) and total offense (294.5 avg., 10th).

Following his 2004 graduation from Pitt, Rutherford went on to play two seasons in the NFL. He spent the '04 season with the Carolina Panthers before joining the Pittsburgh Steelers for their '05 Super Bowl championship campaign. In 2007, Rutherford played for the Hamburg SeaDevils of NFL Europe.

Rutherford owns his bachelor's degree in social sciences. A Pittsburgh native, he graduated in 1999 from Perry Traditional Academy, where he was a standout performer for the Commodores in football, basketball and track.

DANNY KOZUSKO

EQUIPMENT ASSISTANT

Danny Kozusko is currently in his seventh season with the Pitt football team. His duties include assisting in the daily equipment operations for the football team and coaching staff. Kozusko served as a student manager from 2004-2007 and is the recipient of the prestigious George I. Carson Graduate Fellowship Award.

Kozusko has experience working with the other sports teams in the city, as he worked with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2000-2003, assisting the team throughout training camp in his hometown of Latrobe and at all home games. He also interned with the Pittsburgh Pirates during the 2006 season, assisting with ticketing, marketing and customer relations.

Kozusko is a 2007 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a bachelor's degree in communication and rhetoric and is currently pursuing a graduate degree in administrative and policy studies.

DAVE BUCAR

VIDEO ASSISTANT

Dave Bucar enters his second season with the Panthers, serving as a video assistant under director Jeff Wallo.

In this capacity he contributes to the team's various video needs for practice and game day.

Bucar is a 2009 graduate of Washington & Jefferson College, where he earned his bachelor's degree in business management. He was a stellar offensive lineman for W&J, making 38 consecutive starts at center, and was named an NCAA Division III All-American in 2008.

EUGENE JONES IV

ACADEMIC GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Eugene Jones enters his first season as an academic graduate assistant for the Pitt football team. In this capacity, Jones will work closely with Pitt's academic support services to provide Pitt's football players with the resources necessary to achieve academic success.

Jones spent the past three years of his undergraduate career at Pitt assisting head equipment manager Tim Enright. In this position he helped provide Pitt players with various equipment needs and assisted in numerous capacities during daily practices.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Jones graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in May 2010, earning his degree in psychology/Africana studies. Jones is currently pursuing his master's in applied developmental psychology from Pitt.

RATING SYSTEMS

To settle countless arguments, Sports Illustrated in 1970 researched the first and only complete and wholly accurate list ever compiled of college football's mythical national champions. Every recognized authority that ever presumed to name a No. 1 was included:

Associated Press (1936-current) poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Parke H. Davis Ratings (1889-1935) chosen by Davis, a player at Princeton in 1889 and a former coach at Wisconsin, Amherst and Lafayette, and first published in the 1934 Spalding's Football Guide.

Dickinson System (1924-40) chosen by University of Illinois economics professor Frank G. Dickinson; based on system that awarded various point totals for wins over teams with winning or non-winning records.

Dunkel System (1929-current) a power index rating system devised by Dick Dunkel and syndicated to newspapers around the nation.

Football Writers Association of America (1954-current) chosen by a five-man committee representing membership.

Helms First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1889-1982) originally founded in 1936 as Helms Athletic Foundation and changed in the early 1970s to Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation before current name was adopted in 1981.

Illustrated Football Annual (1924-41) an "azzi ratem" system published in this highly regarded magazine by William F. Boand.

Litkenhouse System (1934-1984) a "difference-by-score" method syndicated by Fred Litkenhouse and his brother Edward.

National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-1995) chosen annually by committee representing membership.

The Football Thesaurus (1927-58) system devised by Duke Houlgate and published in book of same title.

United Press International (1950-1995) poll of 35 college coaches. (Became the USA Today coaches poll.)

Williamson System (1932-63) system of syndicated power ratings chosen by Paul Williamson, a geologist and member of the Sugar Bowl committee.

Tony Dorsett and John Majors led Pittsburgh to its last national championship in 1976.

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) was devised in 1998 to determine a national champion for college football. The arrangement matches the country's two top-rated teams against each other in a title game. Participating bowls include the Fiesta, Orange, Rose and Sugar. In addition to those four games, a BCS National Championship Game will be played at one of the bowl sites, which began for the 2006 season.

Sports Illustrated trumpets the Panthers' 1976 championship following a victory over Georgia (27-3) in the Sugar Bowl.

The University of Pittsburgh has won nine national championships — the most of any Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) program in the East and the sixth best ever. Pitt's national champion teams not only ranked as the best in the land in that given year, but in many cases were among the elite teams in college football history.

- Under the direction of Head Coach John Majors in 1976, Pitt completed perhaps the most miraculous turnaround in college football history by rolling to a 12-0 record and claiming the school's ninth national title. The flawless record was a stark contrast to five seasons prior, when the Panthers went 1-10. The 1976 Panthers were lauded as the 17th greatest college team of all-time by Sporting News.
- The legendary Jock Sutherland coached Pitt to five national titles during his coaching tenure. Sutherland's 1937 unit ranked as the best team in the land with a 9-0-1 record. Among the Panthers' vanquished opponents that year: Penn State (28-7), Notre Dame (21-6), Nebraska (13-7), Wisconsin (21-0) and West Virginia (20-0). The tie? A 0-0 deadlock with Fordham.
- Under Glenn "Pop" Warner, Pitt won three national championships in four years. Considered one of the greatest coaches in football history, Warner directed the Panthers to titles in 1915, 1916 and 1918. During that period, Pitt won 30 straight games.
- Perhaps Pitt's greatest team ever didn't win a national title. The Panthers' 1980 team finished second in both major polls with an 11-1 record, its lone blemish an October loss at Florida State. Although Pitt finished second in both the Associated Press and United Press International polls, The New York Times Computer Poll ranked the Panthers as the best team in the country. An amazing 12 players from that squad were selected in the NFL draft the following spring, including three first-rounders.
- Pitt has finished second in a major poll three times. It has ranked in the top four 10 times.

Marshall Goldberg and Coach Jock Sutherland helped Pittsburgh to national championships in 1936 and 1937.

PITT AND THE HEISMAN TROPHY

Legendary tailback Tony Dorsett was selected as the winner of the Heisman Trophy in 1976, the same season he led the Panthers to the national title with a 12-0 record. While Dorsett is Pitt's lone winner of the Heisman, the Panthers have had eight total players finish in the top five in the final balloting. Pitt players have finished in the top 10 of the Heisman voting 14 times.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

A third-round draft choice of Washington in 1981, RUSS GRIMM went on to start 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the 1980s All-Decade Team. Grimm was an original member of Washington's renowned "Hogs" offensive line, which also included another all-time Pitt great, Mark May. Grimm is part of the 2010 Pro Football Hall of Fame induction class.

A second-round draft pick by New Orleans, RICKEY JACKSON spent 15 seasons in the NFL (1981-95). He compiled an incredible 128 sacks, which ranked third all-time when he retired following the '95 campaign. Jackson recovered 28 fumbles (second most in NFL history) and forced 41 (fourth all-time). He broke up 118 passes. In 1994, he signed as a free agent with San Francisco and earned a ring that season as he helped the 49ers to a 49-26 victory in Super Bowl XXIX over San Diego. Jackson was a four-time All-Pro selection and six-time Pro Bowler. He is part of the 2010 Pro Football Hall of Fame induction class.

DAN MARINO was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005. Marino had a legendary 17-year career with the Miami Dolphins. A nine-time Pro Bowler, he retired after the 1999 season holding an incredible 25 NFL regular-season records and as the career leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420). He was also one of the winningest quarterbacks in NFL history, earning 147 regular-season victories, one behind all-time leader John Elway.

TONY DORSETT was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994. When he retired from the NFL following the 1989 season, he was the league's second all-time leading rusher with 12,739 yards. Dorsett has the distinction of being one of only two players in the history of football to win the Heisman Trophy, a collegiate national championship, a Super Bowl championship, and to be elected into the college and pro football halls of fame.

MIKE DITKA was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988. Ditka was an All-America tight end at Pitt in 1960, his senior season. Ditka's pro football career included All-Pro honors. He also was a member of the Chicago Bears' 1963 NFL Championship squad. Ditka worked as an assistant coach at Dallas for nine seasons, spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears (winning Super Bowl XX) and three seasons as head coach of the New Orleans Saints.

JOE SCHMIDT, Pitt's other inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was an All-America linebacker at Pitt in 1952. He went on to spend 13 years with the Detroit Lions, and was a member of the Lions' two NFL championship teams. Schmidt was named to an amazing 10 Pro Bowls. He later coached the team for six seasons and led Detroit to its only playoff appearance of the 1970s. He was inducted in 1973.

Dan Marino

Quarterback

1979 - 82

13

- While at Pitt from 1979-82, broke nearly every major passing record in school history, including career marks for passing yards (8,597) and completions (693).
- Twenty-eight years after his final collegiate season, still holds Pitt records for touchdown passes in a career (79) and season (37).
- Led Pitt to four consecutive Top 10 finishes, including a pair of No. 2 rankings.
- Enhanced his reputation for delivering in the clutch in the 1982 Sugar Bowl, when he threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to tight end John Brown with 35 seconds left to give Pitt a come-from-behind 24-20 victory over Georgia.
- Named a 1981 All-American and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year.
- A first-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins in 1983, Marino went on to gain recognition as one of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history with a record-breaking 17-year career. He retired following the 1999 season as the league's all-time leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.
- Named a special trustee for the University of Pittsburgh in June 2008.

Tony Dorsett

Running Back

1973 - 76

33

- Winner of the 1976 Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Award and was a four-time All-American (1973-76).
- First player in NCAA history to reach 6,000 career rushing yards. Including bowl games, rushed for 6,526 yards. His NCAA-recognized total (not including bowls) of 6,082 yards stood as the Division I record for 22 years (1976-98).
- Gained 100 or more yards 36 times, including 20 consecutive games.
- Remains Pitt's all-time leading scorer with 380 points.
- Holds Notre Dame opponent records for rushing yards against the Irish in a career (754) and game (303).
- Led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record.
- In 1977, was the first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys where he played 11 seasons (1977-87), including two Super Bowls and four Pro Bowls. Played his final year with the Denver Broncos (1988) and finished his career as the second all-time leading rusher in NFL history (12,739).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

Marshall Goldberg

Running Back

1936 - 38

42

- Earned back-to-back All-America honors as a halfback (1937) and fullback (1938).
- Member of the famed "Dream Backfield" at Pitt, considered one of college football's greatest back tandems ever.
- Was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1938 and placed third in the Heisman balloting in 1937.
- Led Pitt to national championships in 1936 and 1937 with a combined 17-1-2 record.
- Spent seven years in the NFL playing halfback for the Chicago Cardinals (1939-42, 46-48).
- Member of the Cardinals' 1947 NFL championship team and had his No. 99 jersey retired by the franchise.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1958.

Joe Schmidt

Linebacker

1950 - 52

65

- Earned All-America honors as a senior linebacker in 1952.
- As both a collegian and professional, Schmidt was considered the era's prototype for linebacker play — instinctive, aggressive and smart.
- Played in 10 Pro Bowls during his 13-year career (1953-65) with the Detroit Lions, which included two NFL championships.
- Served as the Lions head coach from 1967-72, leading Detroit to its only playoff appearance in the 1970s.
- Elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973 and College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

(From left to right) Mark May, Bill Fralic, Mike Ditka and Hugh Green.

Mark May

Offensive Tackle

1977-80

73

- Named a unanimous All-American and the winner of the prestigious Outland Trophy in 1980. To this day he remains Pitt's only winner of the Outland.
- Did not give up a sack his final two collegiate seasons.
- Was Pitt's "go-to" player on third-and-short situations, earning him the nickname "May Day."
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- Was selected by the Washington Redskins in the first round of the 1981 NFL Draft and achieved fame as a standout member of the team's "Hogs" offensive line from 1981-90. Helped the Redskins to three Super Bowls (1982, 1983 and 1987), including world championships in '82 and '87. Finished his pro career with the San Diego Chargers (1991) and Arizona Cardinals (1992-93).
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bill Fralic

Offensive Tackle

1981-84

- A three-time first team All-American, including unanimous status as a junior and senior.
- Became the first offensive lineman to twice finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting, placing sixth in 1984 and eighth in 1983.
- His collegiate career led to the creation of the "Pancake," a statistical barometer for each time Fralic put an opposing defensive lineman on his back.
- The second player taken overall in the 1985 NFL Draft, Fralic went on to an exceptional pro career from 1985-93, playing eight years with the Atlanta Falcons and his final season with the Detroit Lions. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times.
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

Mike Ditka

End

1958-60

89

- Was a unanimous All-America selection at end in 1960.
- Led Pitt in receiving three consecutive years and was also a standout linebacker and punter. He additionally played baseball and basketball at Pitt and was the intramural wrestling champion.

- In 1961 he was a first-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears and was a member of their 1963 NFL Championship team. He was also a member of the Dallas Cowboys when they won Super Bowl VI and earned All-Pro four times.
- Spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears, leading them to victory in Super Bowl XX, and later coached the New Orleans Saints.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1986 and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988.

Hugh Green

Defensive End

1977-80

99

- A three-time first team All-American and won the 1980 Lombardi Award, Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Award.
- Finished second in the 1980 Heisman Trophy balloting, an unprecedented finish for a purely defensive player.
- Was the first-ever defensive player to win the Walter Camp Award.
- Named to Pitt's All-Time Team after just his sophomore year.
- Thirty years following his final collegiate season, remains Pitt's all-time sack leader with 49.
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- First-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1981 and played 11 years in the NFL.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

ROSE BOWL • JAN. 2, 1928

STANFORD	0	0	7	0	—	7
PITTSBURGH	0	0	6	0	—	6

Pitt's first bowl trip resembled a politician's whistle-stop tour—wherever Pitt was at lunchtime during its trek west, it practiced. The routine was simple: deboard the train around 11:15; explore the day's town until noon; lunch at 12; walk lunch off, then practice; reboard the train. So it was that Pitt practiced in Dodge City, Albuquerque and Winslow, Arizona, on the way to Pasadena. The game had a sentimental storyline: the coach against his mentor. Panther Head Coach John B. "Jock" Sutherland had played for Stanford Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner when the latter was at Pitt. Amidst all that, the game, although close, was controlled by Stanford. Pitt grabbed a 6-0 third-quarter lead when Jimmy Hagan scooped up a Cardinal fumble and ran 20 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed. Stanford, which made several marches deep into Pitt territory, finally scored on an unusual play. On fourth-and-goal at the two, Stanford quarterback Biff Hoffman completed a pass to Bob Sims, but it was short of the goal line. Sims was hit and fumbled, but Frank Wilton picked up the loose ball and carried it in to tie the game. Hoffman's extra point won it, 7-6. Pitt, a slight favorite entering the game, mustered very little offense in its first of four Rose Bowl games.

If vintage football films give you the impression that the game of the 20s and 30s was run, run, and run again, think again. USC's Trojans bombed Pitt with an all-out passing attack. The game started on a bright note for "Jock" Sutherland's team when Toby Uansa rushed 68 yards on Pitt's first play. Pitt failed to score, then the walls caved in. Gaius Shaver connected with Henry Edelson for a 55-yard touchdown. Later in the quarter, Shaver hit Ernest Pinckert for a 28-yard score, capitalizing on a Pitt fumble. Another fumble led to USC's third touchdown, a short run which opened the score to 19-0. Two Jesses set up the Trojans' next score when Jesse Mortensen and Jesse Hill teamed for a 51-yard pass play. Russell Saunders helped convert a USC interception into a 33-0 lead with his 13-yard scoring run. Pitt finally broke through in the third quarter when Uansa threw a 28-yard pass to William Wallinchus. Southern Cal sandwiched two more long touchdown passes (38 and 62 yards) around a Tom Parkinson-to-Paul Collins 36-yard TD pass for Pitt to arrive at the final score. In all, the Trojans scored the most points against Pitt since 1903. It would be Sutherland's second-worst margin of defeat in his 15 seasons at Pitt; the worst would come three years later, also against USC in the Rose Bowl.

Pitt's coach, John B. "Jock" Sutherland, would try a new play after two Rose Bowl losses, so he took the team to Tucson to practice for its first Rose Bowl win. Instead Sutherland suffered the worst loss in his Pitt career. It was the first time since 1928 that Pitt was shut out and actually lost the game; it had played four scoreless ties since a 6-0 loss to Carnegie Tech. With 83,000 in attendance, the Panthers stayed close until the fourth quarter before collapsing. USC's Homer Griffith threw, and later caught, a touchdown pass as the Trojans built a 14-0 lead through three quarters. After Irvine Warburton scored to make the score 21-0, Pitt fumbled the kickoff, and Warburton scored again shortly thereafter. A blocked punt set up the final touchdown. Several Panthers were singled out by the crowd with standing ovations: ends Ted Dailey and Joe Skladany, guard Charles Hartwig, and back Warren Heller, who rushed for 63 yards in the final game of his brilliant Pitt career.

"Jock" Sutherland was intent on winning the Rose Bowl in his fourth try. To that end, Pitt spent two weeks working out on the west coast, for Sutherland was not going to accept 0-4 in Rose Bowl play. His tactics worked, and captain Bobby LaRue led Pitt to a 21-0 victory. LaRue's running set up the first touchdown of the game, which, fittingly, he scored. LaRue's 50-yard run in the third quarter, which would have gone 75 yards for the touchdown if not for a diving tackle, set up Frank Patrick's touchdown. Pitt led, 14-0, after three quarters. The defense added a late touchdown, returning an interception. So elated was Sutherland that he substituted every player who made the trip, so each could forever relate the experience of playing in a Rose Bowl victory. After four tries, the coach had finally overcome one of the few obstacles in his remarkable career.

SUGAR BOWL • JAN. 2, 1956

GEORGIA TECH	7	0	0	0	—	7

A controversial pass interference penalty against Pitt's Bobby Grier, the first black man ever to play in the Sugar Bowl, put Georgia Tech on the doorstep for the game's only touchdown. Pitt, under new Head Coach John Michelosen—the only man in Pitt history to play and coach in bowl games (he was a quarterback on the 1936 Rose Bowl team)—had several chances to tie the game but hit a wall of futility. Grier's penalty gave Tech the ball on the 1, from where Wade Mitchell snuck in for the score. A fumble killed a first-quarter drive, then quarterback Corny Salvaterra was stopped on a fourth-and-goal just before halftime. Pitt's Ray DiPasquale intercepted a pass to squelch a fourth quarter threat by Tech. In the final moments, Pitt made a furious attempt to tie the game. The Panthers, who were penalized twice on the last drive, were on Tech's 5-yard line when time ran out.

GATOR BOWL • DEC. 29, 1956

Jacksonville, Fla., The Gator Bowl

GEORGIA TECH	7	7	7	0	—	21
PITTSBURGH	0	7	7	0	—	14

Coach John Michelosen's team had wanted a rematch with Georgia Tech, but the result was the same—a seven-point loss. Pitt outgained Tech by 106 yards, 313-207, but was plagued by turnovers. Georgia Tech converted an early interception into a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Pitt was stopped on a goal-line stand at the start of the second quarter, and Tech increased its lead late in the quarter with a halfback-option TD pass. Pitt quarterback Corny Salvaterra hit Dick Bowen with a 36-yard scoring pass just before the half, and Pitt trailed, 14-7. Bowen's fumble on the second-half kickoff set up the clinching touchdown. Pitt pulled to within seven on Salvaterra's sneak, but could draw no closer.

FIESTA BOWL • DEC. 21, 1973

Tempe, Ariz., Sun Devil Stadium

ARIZONA STATE	7	0	3	18	—	28
PITTSBURGH	7	0	0	0	—	7

A new era in Pitt football was ushered in with the Panthers' first bowl appearance in 17 years. Coach-of-the-Year Johnny Majors had revived a struggling program and Pitt was 6-4-1 entering this game. Freshman Tony Dorsett was a big part of the turnaround, rushing for 1,686 yards. Pitt struck first, with Dorsett scoring two plays after Tom Perko recovered Arizona State quarterback Danny White's fumble on the first play of the game. But the Sun Devils, playing on their own field, proved too tough. Woody Green scored four plays after Dorsett's touchdown to tie the game. Arizona State scored three touchdowns in 6:04 of the fourth quarter, and although Pitt blocked all three extra points, the game ended one-sided after being tied at halftime. Dorsett rushed for 100 yards, but Pitt turned the ball over seven times. Both quarterbacks, White and Pitt's Billy Daniels, threw three interceptions, but White completed 14-of-19 for 269 yards. Daniels was 7-20 for just 57 yards.

SUN BOWL • DEC. 26, 1975

El Paso, Texas, Sun Bowl Stadium

KANSAS	0	0	7	12	—	19
PITTSBURGH	7	12	0	14	—	33

A player rushing for 100 yards is impressive. Two players on the same team is remarkable. Three is unheard of, but that is how Pitt knocked off Kansas. Elliott Walker (11 carries for 123 yards, 11.2 average) got the ball rolling with a 60-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Tony Dorsett (27-142) scored two touchdowns in the second quarter. Pitt had nearly 300 rushing yards at the intermission. Quarterback Robert Haygood ran the veer offense to perfection, rushing for 101 yards (14 carries) when he wasn't busy pitching out to Dorsett. Haygood also connected with Gordon Jones for a touchdown after Walker scored his second of the game. Jones set up his own touchdown with a 63-yard kickoff return. With eight wins, Pitt had its best season since 1963. Dorsett rushed for 1,686 yards on the season, matching his 1973 total.

SUGAR BOWL • JAN. 1, 1977

New Orleans, La., The Superdome

GEORGIA	0	0	3	0	—	3
PITTSBURGH	7	14	3	3	—	27

The many remarkable accomplishments Tony Dorsett achieved in his four years at Pitt were punctuated by his role in this win, one that gave Pitt its first national championship in 39 years. Dorsett, quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and a marauding defense just would not be denied in the first indoor Sugar Bowl game. Cavanaugh, named the game's MVP, scored from six yards out to give Pitt a 7-0 lead. The celebration of that touchdown became a Sports Illustrated cover that can be seen at several sites around Pitt's campus. The photo headline simply read: "PITT IS IT!" Gordon Jones turned a short pass into a 59-yard touchdown excursion in the second quarter. Dorsett's 10-yard score late in the half cemented the victory. He was far from through, however. After gaining 65 yards in the first half, the Heisman Trophy winner exploded in the second to finish with a Sugar Bowl record 202 yards rushing, including 67 on one run that set up one of Carson Long's two second-half field goals. The defense created six turnovers, and limited the Bulldogs to 181 yards. Pitt defenders actually caught more Georgia passes than did Georgia receivers (four interceptions, compared to three completions in 22 attempts). Vince Dooley, Georgia's head coach, said this about the 12-0 Panthers: "They proved today they are the best in the country. They have amazing balance; they are the best defensive team we've seen. I think that is obvious. They are also the best offensive team we've faced." Pitt coach Johnny Majors, who completed his four-year stint at Pitt with a 33-13-1 record (after a combined 13-29 mark in the previous four years) was named Coach-of-the-Year for the second time at Pitt.

GATOR BOWL • DEC. 30, 1977

CLEMSON	0	3	0	0	—	3
PITTSBURGH	10	7	7	10	—	34

Pitt set five Gator Bowl records for offensive proficiency in an astounding demolition of the highly regarded Clemson Tigers. Matt Cavanaugh completed 23-of-36 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns as Pitt outgained Clemson, 566-268. Three scoring tosses went to fullback Elliott Walker, who joined Tony Dorsett as the second Pitt back ever to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Gordon Jones scored the other TD on one of his 10 receptions for 163 yards. Cavanaugh threw for 211 yards and two touchdowns in the first half alone. Clemson's vaunted passing combination of Steve Fuller-to-Jerry Butler was rendered ineffective by a Pitt secondary which swooped in for four interceptions, two by senior safety Bob Jury. Cavanaugh, an All-American in 1977, missed part of the season after suffering a broken wrist against Notre Dame in the first game of the year. "I shudder to think what he could have done had he stayed healthy," said Panther Coach Jackie Sherrill, who finished his first year at Pitt with a 9-2-1 mark.

The Panthers saved their worst performance of the season for this bowl outing with North Carolina State. Primarily a running team in 1978, Pitt attempted to open it up on this night, throwing 48 passes. Four were intercepted, however. The Wolfpack, led by star running back Ted Brown, rolled up a 23-3 fourth quarter lead before Pitt quarterback Rick Trocano tried to bring the Panthers back. An 18-play drive featured four fourth-down conversions, the last of which resulted in a Freddie Jacobs touchdown. Pitt moved to State's 34-yard line with five minutes remaining, but an interception settled the issue. Trocano was intercepted twice more before the game ended, but he also led Pitt to the game's final touchdown. "Execution on our part was our biggest problem," Coach Jackie Sherrill said. "We didn't play well...and the turnovers hurt us." Pitt finished 8-4.

FIESTA BOWL • DEC. 25, 1979

Tempe, Ariz., Sun Devil Stadium

ARIZONA	0	0	3	7	—	10
PITTSBURGH	3	3	7	3	—	16

Pitt finished the 1979 season with a 10-game winning streak, built in part around the arm of freshman quarterback Dan Marino. The season finale came on Christmas Day, with the Panthers rounding out an 11-1 campaign with a 16-10 win over Arizona. The Wildcats, coached by former Pitt radio commentator Tony Mason, threatened often but did not score a touchdown until the game's waning moments. Junior cornerback Terry White intercepted two passes. One set up the second of three Mark Schubert field goals; the other allowed Pitt to run out the clock. Two of Schubert's kicks were from 46 yards out. Pitt's only touchdown came after a 12-play drive, with Marino hitting Benjie Pryor from 12 yards out. The last three plays of the drive: Marino to Mike Dombrowski for 34 yards, Marino to Ralph Still for 24 yards, and the touchdown.

GATOR BOWL • DEC. 29, 1980

Jacksonville, Fla., The Gator Bowl

S. CAROLINA	0	3	0	6	—	9
PITTSBURGH	10	7	17	3	—	37

Pitt's defense wanted this game badly. Its leader for four years, Hugh Green, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting behind South Carolina's George Rogers. With the chance to avenge that result, Pitt smothered Gamecocks with a swarming defense and an efficient offense. Rick Trocano and Dan Marino split time at quarterback; each threw a touchdown pass and Trocano added a short TD run. Although Rogers gained 113 yards, his two fumbles were more of a factor in the game than his rushing output. Tom Flynn recovered Rogers' fumble on the first play of the game, leading to Trocano's score. Randy McMillan scored two touchdowns as Pitt rolled to a 37-3 lead. The defense was led by Rickey Jackson, who made 19 tackles (14 solos). Pitt finished the season 11-1.

SUGAR BOWL • JAN. 1, 1982

New Orleans, La., The Superdome

GEORGIA	0	7	6	7	—	20
PITTSBURGH	0	3	7	14	—	24

One of the most dramatic finishes in Pitt football history gave Pitt its second Sugar Bowl win over Georgia. Pitt trailed, 20-17, with 42 seconds remaining. It faced a fourth-and-5 at the Bulldog 33. Coach Jackie Sherrill disdained the potential 50-yard field goal attempt. "With five minutes to go I said we were not here to tie, we were here to win," Sherrill said. Dan Marino wanted to throw a short pass to a running back to get the first down, but a Georgia blitz left tight end John Brown in single coverage down the middle. Marino was right on target for the touchdown, his third of the game. The Panther defense limited Herschel Walker to 84 yards on 25 carries.

Dallas, Texas, The Cotton Bowl

SMU	0	0	0	7	—	7
PITTSBURGH	0	0	3	0	—	3

The Panthers' season came to a dismal end as Pitt lost to Southern Methodist in the Mustangs' own backyard. Dan Marino, in his last game at Pitt, was plagued by dropped passes on the cold, rainy day. He completed 19-of-37 for 181 yards. Fumbles were the story of the first quarter. Joe McCall lost one at the SMU one-yard line, but Mustang QB Lance McIlhenny returned the favor with a fumble at the Pitt seven. Eric Schubert's missed field goal attempt left the game scoreless at the half. Marino completed five straight short passes to set up Schubert's 43-yard kick which gave Pitt its only points. SMU's "Pony Express" backfield (Eric Dickerson and Craig James) led an 80-yard drive, which McIlhenny capped off with a nine-yard run. Pitt's last chance ended when a Marino pass was tipped and intercepted in the end zone.

FIESTA BOWL • JAN. 2, 1984

Tempe, Ariz., Sun Devil Stadium

OHIO STATE	7	7	0	14	—	28
PITTSBURGH	0	7	0	16	—	23

John Congemi completed a school-record 31 passes for 341 yards, but a late Ohio State touchdown pass spoiled Congemi's, and Pitt's, afternoon. Congemi's second-quarter touchdown pass to tight end Clint Wilson tied the score at 7-7, but the Buckeyes led, 14-7, entering the fourth quarter. Wilson fell on Joe McCall's fumble in the end zone to tie the score early in the fourth quarter. Ohio State's Keith Byars scored his second touchdown by returning the ensuing kickoff 99 yards. Congemi was six-for-six on Pitt's next touchdown drive, which culminated with an 11-yard pass to Dwight Collins. Congemi, who completed 19-of-27 in the second half, had his conversion pass broken up, and Pitt trailed, 21-20. A 17-play drive later in the quarter ended with Snuffy Everett's 37-yard field goal to put the Panthers on top. Quarterback Mike Tomczak led Ohio State back, ending an 89-yard drive with a 39-yard bomb to Thad Jamison, who scored with 39 seconds remaining. Head Coach Foge Fazio's Panthers drove to the Buckeye 24, but could get no further.

BLUEBONNET BOWL • DEC. 31, 1987

Houston, Texas, The Astrodome

TEXAS	14	3	3	12	—	32
PITTSBURGH	7	0	7	13	—	27

Despite late heroics from Larry Wanke, Pitt was grounded in this aerial circus, as Texas quarterback Brett Stafford and split end Tony Jones set Bluebonnet Bowl records. The New Year's Eve crowd was treated to an action-packed game from the start. Stafford connected with Jones for a 77-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. Pitt retaliated quickly: Billy Owens returned the kickoff 45 yards, Billy Osborn hit Reggie Williams for 45 more yards on a trick play; then Craig Heyward tied the score with a four-yard burst. Six plays later, the Longhorns took the lead for good as Stafford hit Jones on a short pass that he broke for a 60-yard touchdown. Stafford finished the first quarter with 202 yards passing on the way to a 368-yard night. Jones set records for receiving yards and longest reception. Wanke replaced Darnell Dickerson early in the third quarter after Dickerson suffered a knee injury. Wanke completed 8-of-20 passes for 172 yards and three touchdowns, including two late in the fourth quarter that cut the Longhorns' lead to five. Heyward rushed for 136 yards, winning his personal battle with Texas star Eric Metcalf, who finished with 95 yards rushing. Heyward ended the season with 1,791 yards, the second-best in Pitt history. Pitt finished the year at 8-4, their most successful season since 1983.

JOHN HANCOCK BOWL • DEC. 30, 1989

El Paso, Texas, Sun Bowl Stadium

TEXAS A&M	7	3	12	6	—	28
PITTSBURGH	7	10	7	7	—	31

Led by bowl MVP Alex Van Pelt's 354 yards passing, Pitt parlayed a John Hancock Bowl-record 530 yards in offense into a 31-28 come-from-behind victory over Texas A&M. It was a day of firsts for the Panthers. Paul Hackett, named head coach moments before kickoff, won his first game as a head coach. It also was Pitt's first bowl win since the Panthers' 24-20 Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia in 1982. Van Pelt, who completed 20 of 40 passes and threw for two touchdowns, rallied the Panthers from a 28-24 deficit, when he connected with Henry Tuten on a 44-yard touchdown strike with just 2:19 remaining in the game, giving Pitt a 31-28 lead. Tailback Curvin Richards rushed for 156 yards on 23 carries and scored the first points of the game with a 12-yard TD. Texas A&M countered with a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Lance Pavlas, tying the score at 7-7 to end the first quarter. With the score tied at 10 late in the first half, Van Pelt threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ronald Redmon, giving Pitt a 17-10 halftime lead. Flanker Olanda Truitt completed his freshman season in stellar fashion, catching four passes for 124 yards, including a key 59-yard reception that set up Redmon's score. Cernel Smith finished the game with 10 tackles and Barry Threats had a game-ending interception, which ended Texas A&M's final drive and secured the Panthers' victory. The Hancock Bowl win marked the end of another decade in Pitt football history and the dawn of the Hackett coaching era. The Panthers finished the 1989 season with an 8-3-1 record.

AXA/EQUITABLE LIBERTY BOWL • DEC. 31, 1997

Memphis, Tenn., Liberty Bowl

SO. MISS.	7	7	14	13	—	41
PITTSBURGH	0	7	0	0	—	7

Playing its first postseason game in eight seasons, Pittsburgh fell victim to an opportunistic Southern Mississippi defense and suffered a 41-7 defeat in the 1997 AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl. It was the Panthers' first-ever appearance in the Liberty Bowl and their first bowl game since a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the 1989 John Hancock Bowl. Pittsburgh threatened early, driving to the Golden Eagles' 13 on its initial series, but failed to score any points. Southern Miss responded with a pair of touchdown drives for a 14-0 second-quarter lead. The Panther offense, held in check for most of the game, had its lone shining moment when quarterback Pete Gonzalez connected with Jake Hoffart on an 89-yard pass-and-run touchdown as Pittsburgh trailed 14-7 at halftime. Hoffart, who finished with five catches for 121 yards, set a Liberty Bowl record with his touchdown catch. The Panthers, however, would come no closer. USM's defense returned a fumble and two interceptions for touchdowns in the second half to roll to its first victory ever over Pittsburgh.

INSIGHT.COM BOWL • DEC. 28, 2000

Phoenix, Ariz., Bank One Ballpark

IOWA STATE	7	20	0	10	—	37
PITTSBURGH	7	0	13	9	—	29

Making its second postseason appearance under Walt Harris, Pittsburgh rolled up big offensive numbers but fell in a shootout to Iowa State, 37-29, in the Insight.com Bowl. The Panthers held statistical advantages in total offense (491 yards to 375), passing (347 to 308) and rushing (164 to 107). The Panthers struck on their very first possession of the game when John Turman hit a streaking Antonio Bryant for a 72-yard touchdown and 7-0 lead. The Cyclones, however, responded with 27 unanswered points, including 20 in the second period. Pittsburgh pulled within 27-14 when Rod Rutherford snuck in from two yards out. Bryant then made a brilliant diving catch for a 44-yard touchdown and the Panthers trailed 27-20 with 2:05 left in the third. The Panthers' momentum was slowed when Iowa State's JaMain Billups returned a punt 72 yards for a score early in the fourth. Kevan Barlow, who finished with 114 rushing yards, bulled in from the three to make it 34-29 at the 9:45 mark. But the Panthers could draw no closer. The contest marked the first football game ever played in Bank One Ballpark, home of Major League Baseball's Arizona Diamondbacks.

Shawn Robinson's 66-yard punt return for a touchdown sparked Pitt's victory over Oregon State in the 2002 Insight Bowl.

Orlando, Fla., Florida Citrus Bowl

NC STATE	3	7	0	9	—	19
PITTSBURGH	3	21	3	7	—	34

Pittsburgh captured its first bowl victory since 1989 with a 34-19 win over NC State in the Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl. The victory gave the Panthers their strongest close to a season since 1980 by winning their final six games. Hobbled by an ankle injury, Antonio Bryant went on to earn Most Valuable Player honors after catching seven passes for 101 yards and two touchdowns. David Priestley put up MVP-like statistics himself, completing 18-of-32 passes for 271 yards and the two scoring strikes to Bryant. The duo propelled the Panthers to a 24-10 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh defense held strong and limited Wolfpack quarterback Philip Rivers to just 189 yards through the air and sacked him four times. NC State closed to 27-19 in the fourth quarter but blitzing Lewis Moore quelled the threat when he sacked Rivers and forced a fumble. Tyre Young picked it up and ran 16 yards untouched for the clinching TD. Moore, who finished with seven tackles (all solo), including two for losses, was named Pittsburgh's Defensive MVP.

INSIGHT BOWL • DEC. 26, 2002

PITTSBURGH	7	3	14	14	—	38
OREGON STATE	7	3	3	0	—	13

Pittsburgh achieved its finest season in two decades with a 38-13 triumph over Oregon State in the Insight Bowl. The Panthers finished 9-4, their winningest season since 1982, and secured a spot in the final national polls for the first time since 1989. The win marked the Panthers' second consecutive postseason victory. A stifling defensive effort, efficient offense as well as a special teams gem keyed the result. Tied at 10 at halftime, OSU quarterback Derek Anderson was intercepted by Tez Morris, who returned the ball 36 yards to the Beavers' 23 early in the third quarter. Rod Rutherford completed a 22-yard pass to Larry Fitzgerald to the one before rushing up the middle for a 17-10 lead just three minutes into the second half. The Panthers broke open the contest later in the third when Shawn Robinson fielded a punt at the Panthers' 34, ran wide to the right and sprinted down the sideline for a 66-yard touchdown. It was the first punt return for a TD in Pittsburgh's bowl history. Pittsburgh iced the game with a 44-yard touchdown drive climaxed by Brandon Miree's seven-yard burst. Miree, who earned the game's Offensive MVP honor, finished with 113 yards rushing on 20 carries (5.7 avg.). In contrast, OSU tailback Steven Jackson — who entered the game as the nation's fifth-leading rusher — was held to a season-low 34 yards.

Charlotte, N.C., Ericsson Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	13	3	0	—	16
VIRGINIA	7	10	3	3	—	23

A skillful and methodical opening drive that moved 69 yards to the Virginia one-yard line ultimately failed to produce any points, setting the tone in Pittsburgh's 23-16 loss in the Continental Tire Bowl. Virginia scored the game's first touchdown four plays later and went on to win its second consecutive Continental Tire Bowl. Missed opportunities were the theme for Pitt, which finished 8-5 for the season, with a missed extra point, missed field goal, an interception and a lost fumble on a potential game-tying drive. Heisman Trophy runner-up Larry Fitzgerald saw his NCAA record touchdown streak end at 18 games, but the All-American still led the Panthers with five catches for 77 yards. Brandon Miree rushed for 110 yards and added four receptions, including one for a 17-yard touchdown. The scoring pass from Rod Rutherford was his 37th of the season, tying Dan Marino's school record set in 1981.

Tempe, Ariz., Sun Devil Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	0	7	0	—	7
UTAH	7	7	21	0	—	35

Making its first appearance in the Fiesta Bowl since the 1983 season, Pitt fell victim to a lethal Utah passing game and equally potent pass rush in a 35-7 defeat. Tyler Palko was sacked a Fiesta Bowl-record nine times and the Panthers' offense was grounded most of the evening. The Utes finished the 2004 season with a 12-0 record and ranked as high as fourth in the final polls. Pitt finished with an 8-4 mark and ranked No. 25. Utah scored touchdowns on five of its first seven possessions, including all three in the third quarter. Pitt advanced into Utah territory three times in the first half but four sacks and a blocked field goal kept the Panthers off the scoreboard. The Panthers' lone score came on a beautiful over-the-shoulder grab by Greg Lee that went for a 31-yard touchdown with 4:28 left in the third quarter. Lee had seven receptions for 93 yards, while fellow wideout Joe DeSardo had nine catches for 109 yards.

SUN BOWL • DEC. 31, 2008

El Paso, Texas, Sun Bowl Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	0	0	0	—	0

Making its first bowl appearance since the 2004 season, Pitt failed to take advantage of a masterful defensive performance, falling to Oregon State, 3-0, in the Sun Bowl. The Panthers (9-4) held the Beavers to 273 yards and forced three turnovers. Unfortunately Pitt's offense was also bottled up, managing only 178 yards and never penetrating Oregon State's 36-yard line. The Panthers appeared poised to pull out another fourth-quarter comeback when T.J. Porter returned a punt 36 yards to the OSU 42 with 12:39 left in the game. A sack and forced fumble by the Beavers' Victor Butler, however, ended the threat. Pitt's final scoring opportunity came with 2:02 remaining when Conor Lee attempted a 57-yard field goal, but the kick fell just short of the crossbar. Linebackers Scott McKillop and Austin Ransom led Pitt with 11 tackles each. McKillop also had an interception in the end zone to end the first half. Greg Romeus was named the Jimmy Rogers Jr. Most Valuable Lineman after collecting four tackles and two sacks. Oregon State (9-4) placekicker Justin Kahut accounted for the lone points of the day on a 44-yard field goal with 2:18 left in the second quarter. It was the lowest scoring bowl game since 1959, a 0-0 tie between Air Force and TCU in the Cotton Bowl.

MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL • DEC. 26, 2009

Charlotte, N.C., Bank of America Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	13	3	3	—	19
NORTH CAROLINA	7	3	7	0	—	17

Dan Hutchins kicked four field goals, including a 33-yarder with 52 seconds left, to lift Pitt past North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. The victory climaxed a 10-3 season for the Panthers, their winningest campaign since 1981. Freshman running back Dion Lewis was named the bowl's MVP after rushing for 159 yards and a touchdown against the nation's No. 6 overall defense. Lewis finished his spectacular debut season with a Pitt freshman-record 1,799 yards, surpassing Tony Dorsett's 1973 frosh total (1,686). Hutchins set Pitt records for single-season field goals (23) and kick scoring (115). His four field goals also set a Meineke Car Care Bowl record. Linebacker Max Gruder had a game-high 11 tackles, while defensive tackle Mick Williams had two sacks. Freshman linebacker Dan Mason, making a surprise start, had a key interception on the goal line late in the first half. As a unit, the Pitt defense limited the Tar Heels to just 264 total yards, including a mere 81 on the ground. It was Pitt's first postseason victory since the 2002 Insight Bowl. The win clinched a final national ranking of No. 15 in both polls for Pitt, its highest since 1982. The Tar Heels finished 8-5.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

The following list was compiled from various sources during the summer of 1981, and has been updated and corrected annually since then. Although all cautions were taken to avoid errors, we do realize that names were most likely omitted due to the immensity of the task. If you have additions, or find errors in the list, please contact the Media Relations Office. Active players are in bold.

* In the 1960s, the AFL established the same draft format as the NFL by drafting in an inverse order of finish. Each league had its own draft, allowing for athletes to be drafted by the AFL and the NFL.

 Jack Durishan was drafted in 1943 by Pittsburgh. He served in the armed forces and after returning was drafted again in 1947 by the New York Yankees.

 Steve Jastrzembksi was drafted by Boston (AFL) in 1962 and Baltimore (NFL) in 1961.

Andy Lee is annually one of the NFL's top punters.

THIS IS PITT

PITT

The past academic year was Mark Nordenberg's fifteenth year of service as Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh. It was a year that presented a broad range of serious challenges – for the world's economy and for higher education generally, as well as for the University. It also was a year of extraordinary accomplishment for Pitt, clearly reflecting a determined commitment to ensure that institutional momentum was maintained and that Pitt continued to build strength, even in the aftermath of what now is known as the "Great Recession." Consider the following telling examples of position and progress.

- For the fourth consecutive year, Pitt was ranked in the very top cluster of the nation's public research universities in The Top American Research Universities, an objective assessment undertaken annually by the Center for Measuring University Performance. The other distinguished universities in that top group were Berkeley, Illinois, Michigan, North Carolina, UCLA and Wisconsin.

- Pitt was among the top five universities, private or public, in terms of the research grants competitively won by members of its faculty from the National Institutes of Health – joining Harvard, Johns Hopkins, Penn and the University of California at San Francisco.
- Pitt also ranked among the top ten universities nationally in terms of total federal science and engineering research and development support. The other universities in that "top ten" are Johns Hopkins, Washington, Michigan, Penn, UCLA, Duke, Columbia, Stanford and the University of California at San Francisco.
- For the third time in five years, a Pitt undergraduate was named a Rhodes Scholar. Since only thirty-two Rhodes Scholars are selected annually from among the very best students at the country's best universities, this is a truly noteworthy accomplishment. In fact, only four public universities have claimed three Rhodes Scholarships in the last five years – Florida State, North Carolina, UCLA and Pitt.

- Pitt was ranked as the nation's top public university in last year's edition of Saviors of our Cities: A Survey of Best College and University Civic Partnerships, a well deserved acknowledgment of a very strong record of community commitment. The University also received national recognition as one of the best places for biomedical researchers to work, as one of America's most "veteran friendly" universities, and as one of the country's best employers of people over fifty.

Pitt's progress over a more extended period of time can be measured in a number of ways. Because the University's principal missions are education and research, two indicators of growing stature, as measured by the marketplace, are especially telling. From 1995 to 2010, applications for admission to the undergraduate programs of the Oakland campus have nearly tripled, climbing from 7,800 to more than 22,600. During that same period, the University's annual research expenditures more than tripled, growing from $240 million in 1995 to $735 million in 2010. Those dollars not only fund pioneering work and are a recognized sign of institutional strength but also support large numbers of local jobs. In fact, applying standard conventions, Pitt now supports, directly and indirectly, close to 26,500 jobs through its research expenditures alone.

Any institution of higher learning makes many of its most important contributions through the work of its graduates, and the recognition earned by Pitt alumni would be the envy of any university. Among many other honors, during the past decade graduates of the University of Pittsburgh have claimed the Nobel Peace Prize, the Nobel Prize in Medicine, the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction, the National Medal of Science (this country's highest scientific honor), the Fritz Medal in Engineering (that discipline's highest honor), the Shaw Prize in Medicine (awarded in Hong Kong and also known as "the Nobel of the East") and the Albany Prize in Medicine (this country's largest award in that discipline).

The stature of any university also is directly dependent on the achievements of its faculty, and Pitt faculty members continue to claim the highest honors in their fields. Examples reflecting the breadth of faculty accomplishment include election to such prestigious societies as the National Academy of Sciences, the Institute of Medicine, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Society for Clinical Investigation, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the National Academy of Education, the American Academy of Nursing, the American Educational Research Association, and the World Academy of Art and Science. Looking to the future, it may be especially telling that more junior members of the Pitt faculty regularly claim the most prestigious “early career” awards for their high potential work.

Over the course of his years in office, Chancellor Nordenberg has received many forms of professional recognition for his own accomplishments. Among other honors, he has been named Pittsburgh’s Person of the Year by both Vector’s Pittsburgh and Pittsburgh magazine. Even more recently, he was named a History Maker by the Senator John Heinz History Center, was awarded the Homer S. Brown Law Association’s Spirit Award, and received the Presidential Leadership Award from six national foundations and professional organizations for his efforts to promote a vibrant intellectual and social campus climate that de-emphasizes alcohol.

To celebrate the remarkable progress achieved during his first decade as Chancellor, University trustees, alumni leaders and special friends contributed $2.5 million to endow a faculty chair in his name. At the time of that announcement, the late Chief Justice Ralph J. Cappy, then the Chair of the University’s Board of Trustees, stated: “This endowed chair indicates the extraordinary esteem in which we hold Mark Nordenberg, not only as an individual and a leader who has brought the University to an unprecedented level of success and achievement but also as a true academic at heart. And for a person who is a true academic, the highest honor one can bestow is to endow a faculty chair in his or her name in perpetuity.”

Chancellor Nordenberg joined the faculty of Pitt’s School of Law in 1977 and quickly built a reputation as an outstanding teacher. He was the initial recipient of the Excellence in Teaching Award now presented annually by the School’s graduating class. He also was one of the first faculty members to receive the Chancellor’s Distinguished Teaching Award, recognizing teaching excellence university-wide. His area of academic specialty is civil litigation, and he has served as a member of both the U.S. Supreme Court’s Advisory Committee on Civil Rules and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court’s Civil Procedural Rules Committee.

Earlier in his career, Chancellor Nordenberg served as Dean of the School of Law and Interim Provost of the University. In 1994, he was elevated to the special faculty rank of Distinguished Service Professor. In 1995, he was elected Interim Chancellor by the University’s Board of Trustees, and in 1996, following a national search, he was elected Chancellor.

Chancellor Nordenberg has long been an active contributor to the broader community, leading efforts focused on such key issues as the proposed consolidation of city and county governments, the challenges facing the state’s urban schools, the work force development needs of the region, and issues of governance in the city’s public schools. He served as the founding chair or co-chair of such technology-driven economic development initiatives as the Pittsburgh Digital Greenhouse, the Pittsburgh Life Sciences Greenhouse, the Robotics Foundry, and the Technology Collaborative. He is a past Chair of both the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities and the Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education. He also is a member of the board and executive committee of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development and a Director of Bank of New York Mellon.

Chancellor Nordenberg is a strong supporter of Pitt athletics. He is a past Chair of the Big East Conference and currently serves on its executive committee. He is a past member of the NCAA’s board of directors and its executive committee. He also serves as the Big East representative to the Presidential Oversight Committee of the Bowl Championship Series.

Chancellor Nordenberg has long recognized that a vibrant athletic program not only serves as a unifying force within the University but provides a critical link to the broader community. He also recognizes that success in competition is just one measure of a program’s worth.

Pitt student-athletes also are a source of pride because of the way that they represent our University, contribute to the broader community, and achieve academically. During the last year, 141 Pitt student-athletes earned a grade-point-average between 3.0 and 3.49; 93 earned GPA’s between 3.5 and 3.99; and twelve student-athletes achieved a perfect 4.0 grade-point-average. A member of our women’s volleyball team (Meagan Dooley) was named the overall female scholar-athlete of the year by the Big East Conference, and a member of our football team (Conor Lee) was named the 2008 Big East scholar-athlete of the year in that sport.

Born in Duluth, Minnesota, Chancellor Nordenberg first moved to this region as a high school senior, when his father was transferred to Pittsburgh by U. S. Steel. He is an honors graduate of North Allegheny High School, Thiel College and the University of Wisconsin Law School. He has been married for nearly 40 years to Nikki Pirillo Nordenberg, who earned her Ph.D. at Pitt. The Nordensbergs have three adult children – Erin, Carl and Michael – each of whom is a graduate of the University’s Falk Laboratory School. Erin also earned a graduate degree from Pitt’s School of Information Sciences.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR STEVE PEDERSON

In an increasingly challenging age for intercollegiate sports, the success of the University of Pittsburgh's athletic department is nothing short of impressive.

By any measure – be it victories on the field of play, student-athlete graduation rates or rising attendance figures – Pitt Athletics is enjoying a new golden era.

The architect of the Panthers' 21st century renaissance is Steve Pederson. Now entering his 10th year as Pitt's athletic director, Pederson's leadership has ushered in an exciting new age of heightened achievement – and an anticipation of even greater accomplishments in the future.

The key to accomplishment, Pederson believes, is aspiration – the Panthers will work hard and aim high in every endeavor. That philosophy resonates with each Pitt student-athlete and staffer, and is the driving spirit behind his department mantra of "Only Big Dreams."

His ability to galvanize people and programs prompted Pitt chancellor Mark Nordenberg to say, "In my judgment, and this assessment is shared by countless others, Steve Pederson is one of this country's most talented and accomplished athletic directors."

Indeed, each year of his tenure has witnessed new points of pride for Pitt Athletics. The 2009-10 academic year was no exception – and it has the Panther Nation eagerly anticipating the possibilities for 2010-11.

Success was plentiful in the athletic arena this past year. Pitt's most visible sports, football and men's basketball, boasted Top 20 rankings. Football won 10 games, including a stirring bowl victory over North Carolina, and finished 15th in the final polls. Basketball continued its remarkable run by earning a ninth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth, the longest active streak in the Big East.

This success prompted CBS Sports to list Pitt as one of the five best combination football and basketball programs in the entire country.

Other notable achievements included a historic campaign for the Pitt wrestling team, which captured its first-ever Eastern Wrestling League (EWL) championship; a 38-victory season for baseball, which spent the majority of the year in the Top 25; and a fifth consecutive postseason berth for women's basketball.

Individually, Pitt student-athletes earned All-America and Academic All-America honors, while continuing to graduate and achieve in the classroom at unprecedented levels. An impressive 269 student-athletes earned grade-point averages of 3.0 or above this past year, including 12 who achieved perfect 4.0 GPAs.

Volleyball's Meagan Dooley exemplified the best of both academics and athletics at Pitt. An All-America performer on the court, Dooley was also a 4.0 student while earning a dual degree in special education and liberal arts. An NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipient, she was honored as the Big East's Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year and Volleyball Player of the Year.

And Pitt student-athletes continued to make their presence felt in the community, contributing more than 2,600 hours of charitable work for various organizations around Western Pennsylvania and beyond in 2009-10.

Momentum for Pitt Athletics under Pederson's watch was obvious in other areas as well.

The Pitt Athletic Department was the recipient of a generous and substantial gift from alumnus John Petersen and his wife Gertrude for the construction of the Panthers' new Olympic Sports Complex. The facility, to be named the Petersen Sports Complex, is being built on 12 acres at the peak of Pitt's upper campus, and will provide state-of-the-art homes for the Panthers' baseball, softball and men's and women's soccer teams. The Petersen Sports Complex will not only give Pitt student-athletes nationally competitive facilities, but it also will rejuvenate a previously untapped area of land that neighbors the University of Pittsburgh campus. The facility is scheduled to open in the spring of 2011.

On the media front, Pederson orchestrated a partnership with CBS Radio Pittsburgh, giving Pitt football and basketball a powerful new flagship home in KDKA-FM 93.7 The Fan beginning in the fall of 2010. With coverage that blankets the tri-state area, 93.7 The Fan will broadcast not only Pitt games but also an array of compelling ancillary programming.

Additionally, Pitt women's basketball gained a new radio home in 1320 WJAS-AM. One of Pittsburgh's most historic radio stations, WJAS will provide live play-by-play action of each regular-season and postseason game for the Panthers in 2010-11, marking the first time the Pitt women's basketball program has enjoyed such coverage.

Pederson's efforts also produced a new athletics apparel partnership with NIKE, making the Panthers one of the finest outfitted programs in the country. Each of the Panthers' 19 intercollegiate sports teams wear NIKE footwear, uniforms, practice gear and equipment. The long-term agreement outfits more than 450 student-athletes at Pitt.

The excitement surrounding Pitt Athletics is also evident at the turnstiles. Pitt men's basketball once again enjoyed a strong homecourt advantage with the 12,508-seat Petersen Events Center soldout for an eighth consecutive year. Moreover, attendance for Pitt football at Heinz Field has jumped 60% over the past two years, a trend that figures to continue into the 2010 season.

This success – on the field, in the classroom and various other areas – comes as no surprise to those familiar with Pederson's track record. His return to Pitt in November 2007 gave the Pitt Athletic Department an instant shot of adrenaline that continues to be felt, and built upon, three years later.

His initial Pitt tenure, from 1996-2002, was characterized by a dramatic revitalization of the Panthers' fortunes, building the foundation for the success the Pitt Athletic Department enjoys today.

During his first Pitt tenure, Pederson hired six Big East Conference Coach-of-the-Year honorees (football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, track and field and volleyball), an unprecedented achievement by a Big East athletic director.

In 1999 he charged an unknown coach from Northern Arizona University with the task of resurrecting the Panthers' struggling men's basketball program. That coach, Ben Howland, would build Pitt into a Big East power and was named the consensus National Coach of the Year in 2002.

Pitt, which had not been to the NCAA Tournament in nine years, advanced to the "Sweet 16" in 2002 after posting a school-record 29 victories. The following season, Pitt would reach No. 2 in the polls, capture its first Big East Tournament championship and again advance to the NCAA regional semifinals. Since that time, Pitt basketball has become one of the nation's most consistent winners. Over the past eight seasons, Pitt has earned an RPI ranking of No. 3, trailing only No. 1 Duke and No. 2 Kansas.

Pitt basketball coach Jamie Dixon, a two-time National Coach of the Year, recalled how instrumental Pederson was in helping to lure him to Pittsburgh to serve with Howland a decade ago.

"Steve was the person who originally convinced me to come to the University of Pittsburgh back in 1999," said Dixon, who enters his eighth year as Pitt's head coach and 12th overall. "He has continued to be a tremendous friend and a person I have regularly sought out for advice and direction over the years...Everyone in our department is going to benefit from his leadership."

PITT

Pitt football also was renewed under Pederson's watch. Upon his arrival, the Panthers were coming off seven consecutive seasons without a bowl. By the end of his tenure, Pitt earned four bowl berths in six years, including back-to-back postseason wins in 2001 and 2002. The '02 team finished 9-4, the program's best mark in 20 years, and ranked No. 18 in the final polls.

One of the stars of that 2002 team was receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who would become a unanimous All-American and now is an All-Pro performer for the Arizona Cardinals.

"When I decided to go to Pitt, it was for many reasons — a great school, a great football tradition and great people," Fitzgerald said. "Steve Pederson was one of those great people who made me feel like Pitt was the place for me. I couldn't be happier that Steve is back."

While Pederson was instrumental in helping to revive Pitt football's present, he was very attentive to honoring the program's historic past. One of his first major steps as athletic director was to retire the jerseys of all-time Pitt greats Mike Ditka, Marshall Goldberg and Joe Schmidt. Pederson later initiated the Pitt jersey retirement of Mark May, the Panthers' lone Outland Trophy winner.

Pitt enjoyed tremendous achievements in attendance under Pederson. In NCAA Division I men's basketball, Pitt ranked among the nation's top five schools in attendance increase for two consecutive years (2001-02 and 2002-03). The 2002-03 basketball season — the inaugural campaign in the 12,508-seat Petersen Events Center — was sold out. Capitalizing on the exciting and unanticipated success of the 2001-02 basketball team, Pitt held a highly successful "select your seat" campaign for prospective season-ticket holders that simultaneously achieved customer satisfaction as well as enhanced fundraising.

In football, Pederson formed a marketing and ticket pricing plan that resulted in record attendance for the 2003 season. Season tickets were sold out for the '03 campaign as the Panthers averaged an all-time record 59,197 fans for their home season, surpassing the previous mark of 54,818 set in 1982.

Pederson's tenure has witnessed a major strengthening of Pitt's athletic infrastructure. With Chancellor Nordenberg, he helped shape the vision of the Petersen Events Center, the state-of-the-art convocation center that dramatically revolutionized Pitt's campus upon its opening in 2002.

The Events Center is widely considered one of the finest college basketball venues in the country and has also been a major asset for student life, providing outstanding recreational facilities and a fitting place for graduation ceremonies.

The Pederson Family (left to right): Daughters Kari and Kristin; Steve and wife Tami; son Mark with his wife Brooke.

Pederson was at the forefront of the football program's move into the UPMC Sports Performance Complex, which included the forging of a unique relationship between UPMC, a professional sports franchise and college athletic program. He personally oversaw the design and layout of the Panthers' Duratz Athletic Complex, which houses Pitt's football offices and training areas, and has been described as the finest facility for a college football program in the country.

Pitt football gained a sparkling new home in Heinz Field under Pederson's watch in 2001. The Panthers gained a prominent presence at the new stadium with their logos on the seating, gates and signage. Pederson additionally initiated the renaming of Martindale Street to "Tony Dorsett Drive" to further enhance Pitt's identity on the North Shore.

"Steve Pederson made many important contributions during his first tenure as Pitt's athletic director from which the university is still seeing the benefits today," said Pittsburgh Steelers chairman Dan Rooney. "He played an integral role in the development of Heinz Field and the UPMC Sports Performance Complex where both Pitt and the Steelers run their football operations."

Fitzgerald Field House underwent a major renovation in 1998-99, providing Pitt's Olympic sports programs with new locker and training facilities. Trees Field also underwent major upgrades to accommodate both baseball and Pitt's new softball program.

During his five years at Nebraska (2002-07), Pederson was also at the forefront of significant facilities construction, including a $51 million expansion to Memorial Stadium. The project resulted in new football facilities as well as new strength, sports medicine and indoor facilities for baseball, softball, soccer and sand volleyball. Additionally, the women's volleyball, gymnastics and rifle teams received a new office complex. Athletics fundraising doubled over his final four years, going from $9 million annually in 2003 to $16 million his final year.

Nebraska achieved at exceptional levels athletically and academically during his tenure. In 2006-07, the Cornhuskers won the national championship in women's volleyball, while the football team won the 2006 Big 12 North title and advanced to its first New Year's Day bowl game since 2001. Overall, 15 Nebraska teams earned NCAA invitations. Academically, Nebraska earned a school-record 94% graduation rate, the highest in the Big 12 as Cornhusker student-athletes achieved a combined 3.0 grade-point average during the 2007 spring semester.

Pederson and his wife Tami have three children: Mark, Kari and Kristin. Mark was married to the former Brooke Gillette in 2009.

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas – down to the embossed “57” on the bottle’s neck – of the Heinz Ketchup 14-ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet by 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53 300-pound linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottle.

UPMC SPORTS PERFORMANCE COMPLEX

2010 PITT FOOTBALL

The UPMC Sports Performance Complex is the finest and most complete football practice facility in the country.

The state-of-the-art training facility, which includes the Duratz Athletic Complex, features expansive training rooms, team meeting and film-viewing rooms, weight rooms and dining facilities. It additionally houses coaching and administrative staff offices as well as the Panthers' academic support personnel. In short, it has everything a football player could ever need or want to reach his highest potential.

- The Pitt football team has direct access to the finest sports medicine care in the world. The complex features a 40,000-square-foot clinical, teaching and research facility, and a 125,000-square-foot indoor center for rehabilitation. Physicians and orthopaedic surgeons see patients on-site. The center has private examination rooms, and on-site digital x-ray units and wide-bore MRI (magnetic resonance imaging) unit designed specifically for the types of musculoskeletal conditions and injuries commonly seen at the center. The diagnostic imaging equipment is filmless and is instantly accessible on-site via computerized web-based images that can be stored as well as clearly transmitted for consultation anywhere in the world.

- The center's 6,000-square-foot physical therapy and rehabilitation area is fully equipped for physical therapists and athletic trainers to direct specific types of injury rehabilitation. The physical therapy and rehab area also has a 25-by-30-foot therapeutic pool and a functional gym providing athletes with functional assessment of their rehabilitation progress with their therapist on-site.
- The Panthers have two outdoor practice fields (one grass and one FieldTurf) at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. Both fields have lighting, allowing for night workouts. Additionally, the complex's indoor practice facility features a regulation-size FieldTurf field and a four-lane track.
- Each Pitt coach has their own expansive meeting room for their positional players complete with state-of-the-art video capabilities. The quarterback meeting area has been named the "Dan Marino Room" in honor of the former Pitt quarterback and Pro and College Football Hall of Famer. The dedication was made in 2000 when Marino returned to his alma mater for a special ceremony honoring his retirement following 17 record-breaking seasons in the NFL.

- Housed in the Durr Athletic Complex, the Pitt Football Hall of Fame is a shrine that pays homage to the Panthers' storied past and present. From the Heisman Trophy won by Tony Dorsett in 1976 to the glass encased lockers of legendary Panther players, the Hall of Fame is full of memorabilia from a proud and rich tradition.
- Pitt's locker room features 128 spacious lockers which are personalized for each player and a lounge area.
- The recently refurbished Hearst Academic Center for Student-Athletes features a computer lab and student reference library. It is staffed by academic counselors to help the Panthers reach their highest potential in the classroom.
- The "Pitt Iron Works," also known as the Panthers' weight room, is furnished with the very latest in strength and conditioning equipment. The expansive training area is utilized year-round for both offseason and in-season lifting regimens.

DR. FREDDIE FU

Freddie Fu, M.D., has been the head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt athletic department since 1986, and the David Silver Professor and chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine since 1997.

Dr. Fu is known worldwide for his pioneering surgical techniques to treat sports-related injuries to the knee and shoulder and for his extensive scientific and clinical research in the biomechanics of such injuries. He is lauded especially for his scientific research and clinical expertise in treating the commonly injured anterior cruciate ligament (ACL), the main stabilizing ligament of the knee. Because of his reputation, Dr. Fu attracts both athletic and non-athletic patients from all over the globe, and is frequently sought after as an expert by top national and international media covering sports, medicine and science.

Dr. Fu sees patients in his clinic at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, one of the world's largest, most comprehensive facilities of its kind, located within the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. Partly designed by Dr. Fu, the complex also houses the indoor and outdoor training facilities of the Pitt Panthers and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

DR. CHRISTOPHER HARNER

Christopher Harner, M.D., co-head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt Panthers football team, is the Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania Professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine. He's also chief of the division of sports medicine at UPMC, medical director and director of education at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, where he also sees athletic and non-athletic patients in his clinic.

Dr. Harner specializes in the clinical research and surgical treatment of sports-related injuries, especially those to the knee ligaments and cartilage. He was among the first surgeons in the country to perform knee meniscus transplants in the early 1990s. (The meniscus is the crescent-shaped cushion inside the knee joint commonly damaged along with ligament injuries.) Dr. Harner's extensive clinical, scientific and academic leadership has been recognized through numerous international awards and grants.

DR. DAVID STONE

David Stone, M.D., is the associate team physician for Pitt Panthers football and an assistant team physician for the Pitt athletic department. A fellowship trained primary care sports medicine physician, Dr. Stone specializes in diagnosing and treating all types of athletic injuries and illnesses and is in many cases the first physician Pitt athletes see before a determination is made on the course of action to treat an injury or manage a potential injury.

Dr. Stone sees athletic and non-athletic patients in his clinic at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine. He is an assistant professor in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine.

DR. VONDA WRIGHT

Vonda Wright, M.D., is an associate team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt Panthers football team. One of few women in her field, along with Pitt's Dr. Robin West, she is assistant professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine.

In addition to her work with young athletes, Dr. Wright has a special clinical and research interest in masters athletes (over age 40) and how physical aptitude affects mobility, independence and other aspects of general health as people age. She is the director of the Performance and Research Initiative for Masters Athletes (PRIMA), the first program of its kind in a medical setting. She sees patients in her clinics at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine and UPMC Shadyside.

Dr. Wright is frequently quoted by local and national media as an expert in sports medicine, orthopaedic and healthy aging issues in active older adults.

DR. ROBIN WEST

Robin West, M.D., is an assistant team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt Panthers football team. One of few women in her field, along with Pitt's Dr. Vonda Wright, she is assistant professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine.

Dr. West is also the head team physician for the Pitt men's basketball team, a consultant to the medical team for the Pittsburgh Steelers and member of the NFL Team Physicians Society. A specialist in treating all types of musculoskeletal athletic injuries, Dr. West is especially interested in researching the biomechanics of knee ligament injuries, aimed at improving prevention and treatment methods. Dr. West sees athletic and non-athletic patients in her clinics at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine and UPMC South Hills in Bethel Park.

DR. MARK RODOSKY

More than 500 University of Pittsburgh student-athletes receive medical care provided by the University's athletic training program.

The University of Pittsburgh has a proud tradition of athletic training education. The undergraduate program is accredited by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). Pittsburgh also provides graduate education at the master's and doctoral level.

Established in 1975, the athletic training program prepares students for a career in the multidisciplinary field of sports medicine. Upon completion of the athletic training education program, the student is eligible for the NATA administered certification examination.

Pittsburgh athletes receive treatment in two athletic training rooms. Each sport has a full-time certified athletic trainer or certified graduate assistant and student athletic trainers assigned to provide medical coverage during all practices and games. The staff is dedicated to providing all aspects of prevention, evaluation, management and rehabilitation of injuries and illnesses.

The sports medicine staff also runs a sports medicine clinic at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex for all athletes to be evaluated by one of the sports medicine physicians. The South Side structure, which includes the Center for Sports Medicine, an indoor practice facility, and four grass practice fields, combines the resources of a major academic and clinical system with professional and collegiate sport team programs. This clinic provides the athletes with an opportunity to be seen by specialists as well as providing the student athletic trainer with an outstanding learning environment.

The UPMC clinic for Pitt athletes is led by Dr. Freddie Fu, Pitt head team physician, and Dr. Christopher Harner, co-head team physician. Other clinic physicians are: Drs. David Stone and Vonda Wright, associate team physicians, and assistant team physicians Drs. Robin West and Mark Rodosky; Dr. Jeanne Doperak; and sports medicine fellow Dr. Jeffrey Macalena.

The world-renowned UPMC Sports Medicine Concussion Program is also available to Pitt athletes. The program is led by neuropsychologists Drs. Mark Lovell and Michael Collins, assisted by neurosurgeon Dr. Dade Lundsford.

In addition, a comprehensive staff of consulting specialists from throughout UPMC are part of the sports medicine team caring for all Pitt athletes.
